

EIGHTEEN KILLED BY MINE EXPLOSION

Two Others Are Injured in Double Explosion in East Brookside Mine Near Tower City, Pa.

DYNAMITE-GAS CAUSE BLASTS

Thirteen Men Are Caught by First Blast,
Caused by Dynamite, Second Explosion
Caused by Gas Kills Five Rescuers

ALL BODIES EXCEPT TWO RECOVERED

TOWER CITY, Pa., Aug. 2.—Eighteen men were killed and two seriously injured today in a double explosion in the East Brookside mine of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company, near here, by a double explosion of what is believed to have been dynamite and gas. Thirteen men died in the first explosion and five went to their death in the second blast after a heroic attempt to rescue the first victims. One of the rescuers escaped.

It is not known exactly what caused the explosion but the miners at the colliery are inclined to the belief that the first explosion was that of dynamite and the second was caused by gas which had been liberated by the dynamite explosion. It is also suggested that the first explosion was caused by gas.

The dead were scattered about for a distance of about a quarter of a mile. Only three men were taken out alive and one of these died on the way to the hospital.

Superintendent John Lorenz, 60 years old, was in the mine when the first explosion occurred. He was rescued several hours later. Harry Schoffstall was another taken out alive. Both were burned and bruised but are expected to recover.

Superintendent Lorenz was found crawling along the ground trying to make his way through the debris to safety.

It is possible that the real story of the explosion may never be known as all who were in a position to know were killed.

While Supt. Lorenz was in the mine at the time of the first explosion he was about 600 feet from it and it is not thought that he knows the cause. He was not in a condition to talk tonight.

Killed in Three Ways.

The men were killed in three different ways. Some of them were violently hurled against the side of the tunnel in which they were working and crushed. Some were burned to death by the explosion of gas and others were suffocated by afterdamp.

The East Brookside Colliery employs about 500 hands. It is situated on top of a mountain within two miles west of Tower City. The colliery closed down Thursday evening for the week but Charles Portland, a mining contractor, who has a contract with the Read company to drive a tunnel, kept some of his men at work.

Were Inspecting New Work.

Superintendent Lorenz and Mine Boss Farrell were in the mine making an inspection of some new work which was to be done and were about 600 feet from the tunnel in which Italian workmen were engaged. It was shortly before noon when the men on the surface heard the rumbling noise and from the mouth of the slope and from the air passage-way at the fan house there came clouds of dust. The outsiders knew in an instant that there had been explosion and a rescue party of six men was quickly sent down. It is judged the second explosion occurred twenty minutes after the first. The rescuers had time to walk about 600 feet from the mouth of the slope where they were found dead.

Five of the foreign workmen were found dead in one pile in the tunnel. The rescue work was conducted under the direction of General Manager W. J. Richards and other officials who hurried to the scene as soon as notified of the explosion. Fortunately the mine was not set afire but the rescuers were retarded for a while by the blocked passage-ways. The first rescued were the members of the relief force who had gone to the rescue of the victims of the first explosion. Others of the dead were found in various parts of the workings.

The Dead Are

APPEAL TO GOVERNOR FOR INVESTIGATION

UNION OFFICIALS WANT PROBE OF
THE COPPER MINERS' STRIKE

If Governor Ferris' Continued Efforts
Fail to Effect a Settlement the Western Federation of Miners
May Take Steps to Procure a Congressional Investigation.

CALUMET, Mich., Aug. 2.—Further union appeals to Governor Ferris for personal investigation of the copper miners' strike were made today and were followed tonight by an intimation that steps might be taken to procure a congressional investigation of the industrial situation. The union officials said they could make a prima facie showing at least equal to that of the United Mine Workers which resulted in the senatorial hearing in West Virginia. The Western Federation of Miners will make no such move unless the continued efforts of Governor Ferris fail to effect a settlement.

The unions claimed tonight that the mining companies were organizing a veritable army of guards to take the place of the state troops. Such action, it was claimed, could result only in a reign of terror.

The companies on the other hand repeated their assertions that outsiders have not been brought into the district and that the only armed men about the mines after the troops leave will be sheriff's deputies, duly sworn and commissioned. Cases of intimidation on the part of strike sympathizers were reported from several mine locations today.

AUTO CRUSHES CHICAGO MAN AS HE CRANKS WITH CLUTCH IN

Former Manager of the M. Rumely
Co. Is Fatally Crushed Against Street Car.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—Bert S. Eddy, until a few months ago manager of the M. Rumely company, manufacturer of farm engines at Laporte, Ind., was fatally injured here tonight by an automobile which he cranked while the clutch was in. Eddy sold the car to E. E. Arrison, a few days ago. Arrison was driving the car and stopped the car at a street car crossing. Without observing that the driving gear had not been disconnected, Eddy jumped out and cranked the car. It leaped forward and crushed him against a street car. He was taken at once to a hospital where he died in a few hours.

CONVENTION HALL WILL BE LARGEST OF ITS KIND IN THE WORLD

Farmers' Convention Hall in Course of Construction at University of Illinois.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—The farmers' convention hall in course of erection at the University of Illinois will be large enough to house the Chicago Coliseum or New York's Madison Square Garden under its roof with room left for a running track around the building, and air ship flights under the ceiling beams, according to President J. J. James of the University of Illinois. Dr. James was in this city today arranging details of work on the building.

"The building will seat 10,000 on the main floor and 5,000 in the galleries," he said. "It will be used as an exposition hall for agricultural and stock shows and will provide facilities in connection with the agricultural experiment station, the university. As an auxiliary to the department of physical training there will be a four hundred yard inside running track enclosing a foot ball gridiron and a baseball diamond. The building will stand as a model for other state universities. It will be the largest of its kind in the world."

THREE HURT WHEN AUTO HITS FENCE

Elgin, Ill., Aug. 2.—One person is believed to be dying and two others are severely injured as the result of an automobile running into a fence twelve miles northwest of here this afternoon. L. Judd Morgan, aged 22, owner of a garage at Hampshire, Ill., sustained a broken back. His wife, aged 19 and Bernice Nicholson aged thirteen were the other occupants of the car. All were taken to an Elgin hospital.

EIGHT FIFTEEN ROUND DRAW.

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 2.—Frank "Frenchy" Vaise of Seattle, lightweight champion of Canada, fifteen rounds to a draw with Joe Bayley of Victoria here today.

Bayley had things his own way until the thirteenth round when Vaise dropped him with a hard right to the nose. The Canadian came up weak for the remainder of the fight did little but hang on.

FARMER SUICIDES.

Ottumwa, Ia., Aug. 2.—The body of Gordon McGuire, a farmer living near Blandesburg, was found hanging in his barn today. His act is attributed to mental suffering following a heat prostration seven weeks ago. He evaded his mother and sister, who were watching him, by telling them he was going to see a physician about his condition.

Pottsville Hospital Is a Serious Condition Tonight.

The doctors said that the patient's upper and lower extremities were badly burned and that there is light chance of his recovery.

PREPARING PLAN OF NON-INTERFERENCE

President Wilson Is Believed to Be Evolving Some Plan of Friendly Non-Interference.

OPPOSES WAR PREPARATION

President Discourages the Idea of Making Preparations for A Volunteer Army to Be Ready for Any Emergency

WILL HAVE NO ARMED INTERVENTION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—While President Wilson has not yet announced the policy which he thinks the American government ought to pursue toward Mexico there is every reason to believe he is evolving a plan of non-interference in the internal affairs of the southern republic. Two developments today emphasized the trend of affairs toward an attitude of friendly non-interference. It became known that the president in conferences with members of the house military affairs committee had discouraged the idea of making preparations for a volunteer army. Likewise Secretary Bryan's request for an appropriation of $100,000 with which to transport destitute Americans from Mexico in emergencies developed a feeling in official circles that the American government would endeavor in any crisis to remove Americans expeditiously from the trouble zones.

This procedure it is felt would minimize the chances for international difficulty as any destruction of property would be cared for through indemnification and there is every indication incidentally that the Wilson administration will pursue a vigorous policy toward recovering damages to foreign property in Mexico.

It is fairly well determined President Wilson will not countenance armed intervention. The senate foreign relations committee has determined to permit a number of persons representing the factions in Mexico to appear before it, so as to get first hand information from both sides.

General Eduardo Hay, who took part in many battles in the Madero revolution as well as the present conflict and a former speaker of the Mexican chamber of deputies, will give the senate foreign relations committee the constitutionalists the last of the week. It is also possible that Mrs. Francisco Madero, widow of the former president, and Alfonso Madero, a brother, will be invited to come before the committee. They would refute the statement of conditions recited by Ambassador Wilson recently and there is a feeling among senators that they should hear both sides in the controversy over the events that led to Madero's death.

UNITED STATES JUDGES DECIDE AGAINST IOWA

Grant Permanent Injunction to Restrain Railroad Commissioners
From Enforcing Rate Reduction.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, Aug. 2.—United States Judge Walter I. Smith of the circuit court of appeals; Smith McPherson and C. S. Van Valkenberg, of the district of Iowa and Missouri, who heard arguments July 23 on the Iowa state fair rate case, today decided against the state. The railroads of the state had asked for an injunction to restrain the state railroad commissioners from enforcing an order for a rate of one and a half cents to the state fair at Des Moines.

The order was based on a law passed by the last legislature. The decision holds that the rate is discriminatory and the order discriminates in favor of Des Moines as against other cities in the state. The injunction is made permanent.

CHARGED WITH KILLING TRAVELING SALESMAN.

Gallatin, Mo., Aug. 2.—Thomas Estes of this city was held for the grand jury tonight on a charge of killing Charles Donaldson, a traveling salesman of Junction, Ill., who was shot while walking with a young lady in a park here last night. The officers believe that Estes was afflicted with a delusion that he owned the park and resented Donaldson's visiting it. At first it was thought a jealous suitor of the young woman had done the shooting. Estes is married.

CHARGED WITH BEING SPY.

Brownsville, Texas, Aug. 2.—R. R. Greve, a German citizen, was arrested in Matamoros last night by rebels on the charge of being a Huerta spy. He had been warned in a letter to remain on American side of the river. Friends have appealed to United States Consul Johnson to obtain Greve's release.

OVERCOME BY HEAT.

Danville, Aug. 2.—Aaron Herd, an Indianapolis real estate man, while enroute to Bloomington, Ill., in an automobile on a pleasure trip, was overcome by the heat near Danville today and is in a dangerous condition in a local hospital.

INSANE MOTHER CUTS HER BABIES' THROATS

CUTS THROATS OF FOUR CHILDREN,
THEN SLASHES HER OWN

Mother and Two of Her Children Are Dead—The Other Two Are in a Precarious Condition in a Philadelphia Hospital.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 2.—Believed to have become mentally deranged through the serious illness of her baby, Mrs. Alice Brocan cut the throats of four of her children and then slashed her own in West Philadelphia tonight, according to the police. The mother is dead and two of the children, Thomas, 3 years old, and Victor, 7, also died. The other two children, 8 and 9 years old, are in a precarious condition in a hospital. The woman was about 35 years old.

The husband of the woman was not at home at the time and the cries of the children as the mother attacked them attracted neighbors, who summoned the police. The woman and the two younger children were dead when the police broke into the house.

The woman's baby is in a hospital with a fever and might be recovered, but the child could not live. This, the police believe, unbalanced her mind.

DETECTIVES MAY HAVE LOCATED STOLEN JEWELS

Jewels Are Reported to Have Been Found in Safe of a Boston Brokerage House.

Boston, Aug. 3.—The jewels valued at $125,000 which have been reported as missing from the summer home of Mrs. John H. Hagan at Naragansett pier since the night of July 25, have been located in the safe of a Boston brokerage house, according to an unconfirmed story published here today. The head of a detective agency in this city, which has been at work on the case, refused to confirm or deny the report.

According to the published story the jewels were left as securities for a loan of $60,000. They were pledged, it is said, by parties known to members of the firm. How the persons involved got possession of the gems the story adds, is not known.

OFFICERS OF CANADIAN MILITIA REGIMENT HAVE RESIGNED

Action Comes as Result of the Dismissal of Lieut. Atkinson, Leader of Band Who Threw American Flag in the Dust.

Saskatoon, Sask., Aug. 2.—As the result of the flag incident here Friday in which the American flag was trampled in the dust by Canadian militia, all officers of the Hundred Sixty Fusiliers have resigned. Their action comes directly as the result of the dismissal from the regiment of Lieut. Atkinson, leader of the bugle band, who broke ranks to snatch the flag from the hands of a young American woman who he alleged, struck him in the face with the flag. The officers declared tonight that they will take the case before the imperial parliament at London.

DR. T. N. McLAIN OF PEORIA WILL SUCCEED DR. WALTER TREADWAY

The Latter Physician Will Leave the State Hospital to Enter the Marine Hospital Service.

Springfield, Aug. 2.—The state board of administration today announced the appointment of Dr. Joseph Cooperstein, Chicago, as assistant physician at Chester State hospital, vice Dr. William Hersio. Dr. T. N. McLain, physician at the Peoria State hospital, has been transferred to the Jacksonville State hospital, where he succeeds Dr. Walter Treadway, who enters the marine hospital service. He will be alienist to the board of immigration at Ellis Island.

BOUT IS CALLED OFF.

New Orleans, Aug. 2.—Because of the vigorous opposition of the clergy and religious societies the 20 round fight scheduled for Sunday between Young Denny and "Wildcat" Pernis, welterweights, was called off tonight.

Men's STRAW HATS ½ price at FRANK BYRNES' Hat Store.

SUFFER FROM POISONING.

Woodstock, Ga., Aug. 2.—About fifty persons who attended a Sunday school picnic near this place today are suffering from ptomaine poisoning as the result of eating food served at the outing. Physicians fear several of the patients may die.

ATTENDS QUINCY CHAUTAUQUA.

Though the chautauqua idea is a new one in Quincy, the session just closed there contained features worthy of note and emulation by communities with a longer chautauqua experience, is the opinion of Dr. H. L. Griswold who returned yesterday from a river trip to Burlington, Iowa, and attendance at the Quincy chautauqua. The tenting feature was very noticeable, there being over 100 tents occupied for the most part by Quincy residents.

TO HASTEN WORK ON TARIFF BILL

Leaders of the Senate Will Back Movement to Have Senate Convene at Eleven Instead of Noon

WILL SIT SEVEN HOURS A DAY

Under This Arrangement the Leaders
Hope to Get Many Campaign Speeches
Out of the Way During the Extra Hour

EARTHENWARE SCHEDULE COMPLETED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—In an effort to hasten the progress of the tariff bill, leaders on both sides of the senate determined today to back a movement to have the senate begin session at 11 a. m. instead of noon. The senate will sit seven hours a day under this arrangement and the leaders hope the extra hour will serve to get many campaign speeches out of the way.

The earthenware schedule finally was completed today after an amendment by Senator Jones to put a countervailing duty on lime was voted down.

The entire metal schedule temporarily was laid aside because Senators Penrose and Oliver, who are especially interested in it were out of town. The sugar schedule also was passed over. Both will be taken up next week. Senator Walsh made the principal speech of the day in favor of the bill. He supported the free wool and free sugar provisions, although in the caucus last month he had vigorously opposed free wool.

The Republicans succeeded today for the first time in amending the bill. On the suggestion of Senator Smoot, Senator Hughes offered an amendment striking out three words in the wool schedule which the Utah senator said would lead to endless misunderstanding if allowed to remain in.

DYNAMITE IN BUNDLE OF OATS EXPLODES IN THRESHER

Blast Probably Fatally Injures Bert Jones, a Farmer, and Slightly Injures Other Members of the Crew.

Mason City, Ia., Aug. 2.—Dynamite in a bundle of oats caused an explosion in a threshing machine near Burchinal today in which Bert Jones, a farmer was probably fatally injured and 11 which several other members of the crew sustained slight injuries from the flying fragments. Jones was struck by a piece of iron. The thresher was new and had only been running a few hours when the explosion occurred. Authorities are investigating the dynamite feature of the accident.

INSTALL NEW MACHINERY.

At the Crawford planing mill a forty-eight inch triple drum sander was recently installed. With this machine it is possible to sandpaper a pannel or door four feet wide in about one-twentieth of the time that it would take to do the work by hand, and it is done perfectly too. Another improvement at the mill is the new cut off saw which does speedier work than the saws which have been in use. The Crawford mill is equipped with improved machinery as rapidly as improvements are offered just as the Crawford lumber yard is kept constantly stocked with the best grades of lumber.

MASTER IN CHANCEY.

Master in Chancery John F. Clark sold at public auction Saturday at the court house 90 acres of land belonging to the John Farmer estate. The purchaser was Frank Rataichak and the price $70 per acre. The sale was held in order to close up an estate. The land is about five miles north of Jacksonville and while some of it is rough the price is considered very low.

WAS LOWEST BIDDER.

David Estaque delivered a police patrol auto to the Springfield commissioners yesterday. Mr. Estaque returned Saturday from DeKalb, where he was the lowest bidder for a horse and chemical wagon of the Harco company for that city. Mr. Estaque has gone to Dixon, where he will figure on a similar equipment for that place.

GRACE CHURCH SERVICES.

Sunday school, 9:30 a. m. F. E. Baldwin, superintendent. Preaching at 10:45 by the pastor. Communion service also. Chautauqua service on the lawn at 7:45. Subject: "Land of the Incas." Our South American neighbors. Vocal solo by Miss Mary Lindsay. Violin solo by Miss Clara Moore. If weather is unfavorable same service will be held in the church.

SHOWS SIGNS OF HYDROPHOBIA.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 2.—Elize Parish, writer of children's verses, and Mrs. William Sterling of Picherford, sucked the wounds of two children bitten by a dog at Miss Parish's summer home today. It was later determined by a Cornell chemist that the animal had rabies. All four now show signs of hydrophobia and are under treatment.

BULGARIA SUBMITS COUNTER-PROPOSAL

DECLINES TO RECOGNIZE THE ALLIES
CLAIM FOR INDEMNITY

Counter-Proposals Are Regarded in Bucharest as Constituting Bulgaria's
Maximum Demands and Their Abatement to Some Extent Is Considered Certain.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—Bulgaria submitted counter-proposals to the demands of the Allies at the Bucharest peace conference today, according to a telegraphic despatch from Bucharest, Roumania to the Exchange Telegraph company.

The Bulgarian proposals stipulate that the frontier line shall start at the old Bulgarian boundary and run southward between Kumanovo and Egri-Palanka, thence between Vels and Istip, across the Varda River to Murichovo, near Monistar, and then by way of Moglen, Geoghele and Kilkish and to the west of Seres, across the Struma River to the gulf of Orfani.

Such a frontier would give Bulgaria possession of the towns of Kotehana, Istip, Strumitza, Seres and Kavala.

Bulgaria declined to recognize the allies claim for an indemnity or to enter into any negotiations concerning that subject.

Represent Maximum Demands.

Bucharest, Roumania, Aug. 2.—Bulgaria's counter-proposal presented at the Balkan peace conference here today is regarded as constituting her maximum demands and, consequently, their abatement to some extent is considered pretty certain.

Peace will be signed, according to the opinion expressed in diplomatic circles on the basis that points regarding which an agreement cannot be attained shall be reserved for decision by the great powers.

DR. NORBURY RESIGNS AS STATE ALIENIST

Former Jacksonville Physician Will Leave Service of Board Sept. 30.

Announcement was made Saturday that Dr. F. P. Norbury, formerly of this city, had resigned his position as alienist for the state board of administration, the resignation to take effect Sept. 30. Under the law Dr. Norbury still had two years of his term to serve, but the resignation was requested by Governor Dunne and promptly filed. While Dr. Norbury has not made his future plans public, it is understood that he will not return to Jacksonville.

BOOSTERS TO TAKE TRIP WEDNESDAY.

Towns North Will Be Visited, With Beardstown as Farthest Point.
Chautauqua boosters will take another automobile trip Wednesday, this time visiting the towns north, with Beardstown as the farthest point. Dinner will probably be taken at that place and on the return the Arenzville picnic will be visited in the afternoon. The Star quartet will go and the same speakers as on the White Hall trip will make the tour. F. J. Heintz and W. W. Wharton, members of the good roads delegation from Carlisle, have asked for a large number of posters and programs which they can distribute in their town. The advertising committee has been working hard on these booster trips and deserve the encouragement of parties who have cars, in making an effort to go. Secretary Fritchey stated last night that he hoped a larger crowd would make the trip, than the one that went to White Hall.

EAGLES WILL PLAY CURRIAN THIS AFTERNOON

The strong baseball team of Currian will be the opponent of the Eagles at Nichols park this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Both teams are in the pink of condition and a strong contest is expected. Thomas Wall, the star twirler of the Eagles will be on the mound and will be opposed by Maurer. The Eagles cannot expect the challenge of the White Sox for the coming two Sundays on account of having games booked with Pekin and Springfield.

MRS. MONETT DIES.

ANOTHER LATIN- AMERICAN PUZZLE

Castro's Return and Seizure of Coro Officials Presents Another
Puzzle to State Department

TENANT SENT TO VENEZUELA

Secretary H. F. Tenant of Legation of Caracas Will Leave New York Tomorrow
On the Protected Cruiser Des Moines

NO FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS RECEIVED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Cipriano Castro's return to Venezuela followed by today's despatches of his seizure of officials of the government at Coro, present to the state department another Latin-American puzzle anything but a welcome addition to those already pending. While Secretary Bryan to day declined absolutely to outline the attitude of the United States toward Castro, the day's developments made it evident that the United States was getting into touch with the situation. Henry F. Tenant of New York who was nominated for the secretary of the legation at Caracas and confirmed by the senate will hurry to Venezuela on protected Cruiser Des Moines, sailing from Brunswick, Ga., for LaGuaira Monday. The legation now is in charge of a clerk.

Secretary Bryan, after a conference with W. W. Russell, late minister to the Dominican republic and once minister to Venezuela during Castro's regime announced that he expected soon to announce the appointment of a new American minister to Venezuela succeeding Elliott Northcott resigned. Many believed Mr. Russell would be the man. The state department received practically no official information of Castro's activities during the day.

MAY HANDLE GARBAGE BY CHEMICAL REDUCTION

Chicago City Council Will Investigate Operation of Proposed Plant.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—A process of handling the city's garbage by chemical reduction that will produce alcohol and sugar enough to make a material off set against the cost of collection of garbage and operation of the plant is being investigated by the Chicago city council. Preliminary tests are said to show promising results. Municipal handling of the city's garbage recently was decided on by one council and $800,000 has been voted for a plant. The new process is the invention of a Chicagoan 94 years old.

MRS. BAKER OBSERVES
NINETY-FIRST BIRTHDAY

HAS RESIDED IN MORGAN COUNTY SINCE EARLY CHILDHOOD

Celebration Is Held at Residence of Son, J. M. Baker, East of City—Seventy-one Relatives and Friends Present.

Surrounded by her children, grand children, great grandchildren and other relatives and friends, to the number of seventy-one, Mrs. Sarah Baker of this city celebrated her ninety-first birthday Saturday at the home of her son, J. M. Baker, east of the city. Although in reality her birthday does not take place until to day, the celebration was held yesterday on account of the date falling on Monday.

Children Arrange Celebration.
The celebration was arranged by Mrs. Baker's three children: Mrs. Boyce, Mrs. Boyd and James Baker, and before noon a large crowd of relatives and friends had gathered at the Baker home. The relatives who lived near brought an abundance of good things to eat and at 1 o'clock the guests sat down to an elaborate chicken dinner, the table being arranged under the great spreading maple trees in the front yard. The dinner was served by Mrs. Clara Hodges, Mrs. Sallie Hoagland, Mrs. Sarah Cook, Mrs. Bertha Davies, Mrs. Mae Davis, Mrs. Cora Hamm, Miss Martinette Baker, Miss Alice Baker, Miss Fannie Boyd, Miss Jessie Allen and Miss Marie Rockall.

After dinner Mr. Baker treated the men with cigars and F. E. McDougall took several pictures of the gathering, and also one of Mrs. Baker and her three children. The afternoon was spent in a delightful social manner and Mrs. Baker received the congratulations of a host of friends. Four nieces who were unable to attend, wrote letters of regret at their inability to be present at the gathering and congratulating their aunt on the celebration of her birth. They were: Mrs. Nettie Spaulding and Mrs. Pattie White of Fairfield, Ia. Mrs. Sarah Harbor of Paul's Valley, Okla., and Mrs. Mary House of Grain Valley, Mo.

Born in Bond County.
Few there are who have had the pleasure of seeing Jacksonville grow from a small cluster of houses to its present size, but such has been the experience of Mrs. Sarah Baker. Born August 3, 1822 in Bond county, Ill., the fourth child of John and Sallie (Pruitt) Samples, both natives of Kentucky, Mrs. Baker came to Morgan county with her parents when but six months old. She is the last of a family of nine boys and three girls.

Her father entered 80 acres of land, 2 1/2 miles northeast of where Jacksonville now is, for $1.25 per acre, and built a small house on the place. At that time most of the place was an unbroken rolling prairie. When about 7 or 8 years of age, Mrs. Baker remembers that a family named Kirkman moved to this county from Kentucky and that she stayed with the women of the family while the men went back to their native state for the remainder of their effects. There were then only a few houses in Jacksonville.

About eighty years ago Mrs. Baker's father built the brick house which now stands on the Samples place, the ground which he entered when he came here, and Mrs. Baker in speaking of it yesterday stated that she carried brick for one of the men, but the other was so gruff that she refused to help him. She also stated that her father made the brick which the house was built. Mrs. Baker remembers very clearly the deep snow of 1832, when all of the fences were covered and the top crust was so hard that a wagon could be driven over it without making a dent in the snow. Mrs. Baker stated that deer was quite plentiful in this county then, and although quite a large number of them were killed during the winter of the deep snow, still there were large numbers of them for several years after.

Saw Falling Stars in 1833.
Another event which she remembers quite as clearly was the falling of the stars in November, 1833. "The stars began to fall about midnight," said Mrs. Baker, "and the people got all of the children up, not knowing what to expect. I thought everything would be burned up as the stars fell in every direction, and appeared very much like they were hanging on chains of fire."

In 1846 Mrs. Baker was married to James Baker, who came from Clark county, Ohio, and they moved to the farm where the reunion was held. Mr. Baker passed away October 3, 1903, and shortly afterward Mrs. Baker came to Jacksonville to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Boyce. Mr. and Mrs. Baker were the parents of five children, two of whom have died, Margaret Ann Ledford, wife of William C. Ledford, and Liza Jane Allen, wife of Benjamin Allen. The children living are Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Boyce of 744 South Church street, this city; Mrs. Mary Ellen Boyd and James Martin Baker, who reside east of the city.

Possesses a Remarkable Memory.
Mrs. Baker is quite a remarkable lady for one of her advanced years, and to judge from her activities one would think she was several years younger. During her childhood and young womanhood the people spun their own wool and wove the cloth for their own clothes, also making the cloth up into clothing afterward. She is still quite an adept with the needle and has made nearly all of her grandchildren a quilt. She is possessed of remarkable memory, recalling incidents of her childhood as though they occurred only yesterday, and is most interesting to converse with. She is pleasant and quite cheerful and during her many long years of residence in Morgan county and Jacksonville, has made many warm and fast friends, who united in extending their congratulations. Those present at the reunion Saturday were: Mrs. Sarah (Grandmother) Baker, James Baker, Mrs. Mary Boyd and husband, Thomas Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. John Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. George Hoagland, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Ebeau Davies of Washington, Kan., Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hamm, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ledford of Springfield, Billie Ledford, Lillie Ledford, Fannie Boyd, Alice Baker, Martinette Baker, Jessie Allen and Edward Allen, grandchildren: Violet Barber, Florence Barber, Fannie Barber, Margaret Barber, Charles Barber, Hettie Viola Barber, Mary Ardella Davies, Clifford Davies, Martha Cook, Ralph Cook, Raymond Cook, Marguerite Hodges, Pauline Ledford, Ernest Hoagland, Warren Hoagland, great grandchildren.

Other guests present were Mrs. Julia Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Samples and daughter Lena, Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald, daughter Ruth and son Charles, Mrs. Joseph Shreve and daughter Helen, Mrs. Dennis Schram, Mr. and Mrs. William Ledford, F. E. McDougall, Miss Sarah Jewsbury, John Samples, Elmer German and W. J. Eads, all of Jacksonville; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Socks, Mrs. Frank Pulks and Mrs. Harris of Orleans, Mrs. W. H. Hard-P. J. Bohman of Beardstown, Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter and son Russell of Litterberry, Mrs. Hester Rockall and granddaughter, Jennie Marie Rockall of Lexington.

FIFTY YEARS AGO.

Under the above title the Inter Ocean has the following among other items.

(July 31 1863.)
The first intimation of John Morgan's pusillanimous finale was given to the Confederates in Richmond this week, and was received by them with unbounded astonishment and dismay. They believed Morgan to have been brilliantly successful and fully anticipated a triumphal reunion with the renowned horse thief, at his own fireside in the sacred precincts of the Blue Grass state. The state of Tennessee has in the Federal service ten regiments of cavalry, ten of infantry and two batteries of artillery.

It is said that fully 6,000 people listened to General Logan's speech at Du Quoin, Ill., yesterday. At the close of the meeting three hearty cheers were given for the Union, three for General Logan and a series of patriotic resolutions were adopted.

In the skirmishing which preceded the evacuation of Jackson, Miss., by General Johnston, the enemy used an explosive musket ball of the most destructive and barbarous character. These balls were of the mine pattern, hollow and filled with fulminating powder, covered at the base with a cap. On striking any object they explode with a terrible effect. One of these missiles struck one of our men in the leg, shattering the bone into fifteen pieces. The new balls are of English manufacture and have recently been furnished to the Confederates.

So numerous are the exemptions in Boston that the government has recently sent inspectors to that city to ascertain, if possible the cause of the excessive disability prevailing there.

Officers who were engaged in the pursuit of Morgan's forces state that during the progress of the guerrillas through Ohio they refused to release the prisoners they captured until they promised to vote for Vallendigham, the Democratic candidate for Governor.

Jacob Strawn, the great Illinois farmer of Jacksonville, has collected 100 cows, donated by himself and neighbors, which are intended for our hospitals at Memphis. The matron of the hospitals asked for these cows and one farmer has collected and forwarded them. Good for Strawn!

The mayor for Springfield has obtained a contract for furnishing the government with 3,200 horses at $111.75 a piece.

The latest news from Sicily is that an eruption of Mount Etna has commenced. Black smoke in great columns is ascending from the crater, an exceedingly rare phenomenon.

Roberts' Baking Powder
Blue Ribbon Brand

Our Quality Baking Powder with its new label, new brand is packed in the new improved friction top can.

Surest and Purest Baking Powder

Several months since we made a contract with the manufacturer of our High Grade Baking Powder whereby we were justified in reducing the price from the regular 25c price to the low price of ONLY 15c per can. Since that time ROBERTS' BAKING POWDER has won its place in some of the best homes in Morgan county. There is no better Baking Powder on the market, irrespective of price or brand. TRY IT—BUY IT—USE IT and if not found entirely satisfactory your money is REFUNDED.

Roberts' Cup Quality Coffee

Roberts' Coffees are perfectly blended from old crop coffees which were properly cured and aged. Their unvarying quality is proven not by the appearances, but when the beverage comes steaming hot to your table. In the final analysis the cup is the only place where coffee comes to the real test and that is where Roberts' coffee proves its superiority.

The Fashion Book for Fall

Illustrating Pictorial Review Patterns

Is now on sale. For years this book has been looked upon as the most authentic portrayal of the forthcoming styles to be found in any publication in America.

Pictorial Review styles are in a class by themselves, and are as a rule three months in advance of all others, in presenting that which will be worn by the American women for the fall season.

No woman should be without this book. It illustrates styles for every occasion—pretty house dresses, prim street frocks, charming afternoon and evening gowns, etc., etc.

Not only are Pictorial Review Fashions ahead of all others—but the patterns, too, are far superior. They are the simplest patterns made, and each one is accompanied by a cutting guide which makes a mistake next to impossible. Use a Pictorial Review Pattern once and you will never use any other kind.

The price of the Fall Fashion Book is 25c, which includes any 15c pattern free.

GRiffin DEFEATS ARMSTRONG FOR WESTERN TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

California Star Wins Hard Earned Victory Over Minnesota Expert.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—California's supremacy in western tennis was upheld to day by the newest star of the state's great galaxy, Clarence Griffin. Playing through his tournament on grass courts the boyish champion wound up a brilliant campaign by a hard earned victory over Joseph Armstrong, whose game threatened for a time this week to put Minnesota in nearly as prominent a place on the tennis map as the golden state.

The scores of the final match were: 6-4, 6-0, 4-6, 6-1.

The western doubles championship was won by Heath Byford and R. H. Burdick by an easy victory in the final round over Walter Hayes and John Winston, 6-1, 6-2, 6-4. The new champion pair, according to the program, will compete at Onwentsia Tuesday with the eastern champions, Gustave Touchard and W. M. Washburn, while the southern pair, Robert Sheldon and J. B. Adams, will play Clarence Griffin and John Strachan, the Pacific coast champions.

The winning teams will battle on Wednesday for the privilege of playing McLoughlin and Bundy for the national championship at Newport, Aug. 18.

THE GAME OF WAR.

Some of the Things That Are Forbidden by Civilized Nations.

It is not generally realized that the game of war is hedged round by as many restrictions as a boxing contest under Queensberry rules. These regulations, which are under the sanction of all the civilized countries of the world, are designed to insure fair play for the combatants.

When it is intended to bombard a place due notice should be given, so that all women and children may be removed to a place of safety, and every care must be taken to spare churches and hospitals, as well as all charitable or educational buildings.

All chaplains, doctors and nurses are protected in every possible way and are not to be taken prisoners or in any way injured.

Any soldier robbing or mutilating an enemy is liable to be shot without trial, and death is the penalty for wounding or killing a disabled man.

The bodies of the enemy are to be carefully searched before burial, and any articles found on them which might lead to their identification are to be sent to the proper quarters.

Explosive bullets must not be used, and quarter must be given to the enemy whether he asks for it or not. In an attack on the enemy there must be no concealment of the distinctive signs of the regiments, and the use of poison for polluting drinking water is strictly forbidden.—London Answers.

THE "CITY OF HOMER."

Reminders of the Ancient Architectural Glory of Smyrna.

Architecturally Smyrna must have degenerated since the ancient days, for we are told that then the streets were broad and handsome, well paved and running at right angles with each other. There were a number of squares and porticoes and public libraries, a museum, a stadium in which Olympic games were celebrated with great enthusiasm, a grand music hall or Odeon, a Homerion and many temples, of which the most famous was that of the Olympian Jupiter, in which the reigning emperor was practically the god worshiped.

The ancient Smyrniotes were inordinately proud of their city. They called it the "First of Asia," though the Ephesians violently disputed this claim. The inhabitants also called their city the "City of Homer," who they claimed had been born and brought up beside their sacred river Meles.

They put his image upon a coin, which they called a homerion, a name given to one of their temples. Enormous fragments yet remain showing what tremendous buildings once occupied the broad plateau on the summit of the acropolis, and as one rebuilds in imagination these wonderful piles he can easily forgive the Smyrniotes of old for their grandiloquent praise of their city and its beautiful crown.—Christian Herald.

The Only Safe Course.

There is a supreme court justice in New York city who is locally noted for his severity. If he can prevent it no guilty man shall escape, and in his court very few of them do.

Last fall a man was on trial before him for forgery. The prosecution, so it seemed to most of the spectators, failed to make out a very good case. Nevertheless the jury came in with a verdict of guilty.

Later the foreman of the jury was talking about the case with a friend who had heard some of the testimony. "We weren't certain that we ought to convict either," said the foreman, in explanation, "but after listening to his honor's charge, all of us realized that if we acquitted that fellow we'd be guilty of contempt of court."—Saturday Evening Post.

Dangerous Dust.

Dust is more dangerous than draft. The dust of the house is more dangerous than the dust of the street. It is in dry, windy weather that colds, influenza, bronchitis, tonsillitis and consumption are caught. For every speck of dust is an airplane with an army of disease germs as passengers. Sunlight destroys them; they thrive in darkness. The broom and duster of the housewife stir them up from their breeding places in dark recesses, and the open windows of the dusting hour blow them all about the house.—New York World.

Testing.

"Why do you put your finger on that paint? Don't you see the sign 'Fresh Paint'?"

"Yes," replied the man with eccentric ideas. "But I can't keep from testing it and thinking what a convenience it would be if fresh eggs could be tested the same way."—Washington Star.

FAMOUS WHITE SLAVE CASE TO BE CALLED MONDAY

All in Readiness for Hearing of Caminetti and Diggs, Who Face Serious Charges—Prominence of Families Involved Increases Interest.

San Francisco, Aug. 2.—Everything is in readiness for the beginning of the trial on Monday of the celebrated Diggs-Caminetti white slave case, which developed into a cause celebre when it was made the medium for an attack on the official conduct of Attorney General McReynolds and incidentally involved the Wilson administration in criticism. The fact that the Republican members of the house of representatives are expected to bring the case up for debate at the first opportunity will cause the trial to be followed with additional interest.

The case had its beginning last March, when Drew Caminetti and Maury Diggs, the defendants, are alleged to have eloped with Marsha Warrington and Lola Norris, two high school fraternity girls of Sacramento. The elopement led to the arrest and indictment of the two young men on charge of white slavery.

Prominent Families Involved. The case attracted considerable attention at the time because of the prominence of the defendants' families. Diggs is a nephew of Marshall Diggs, once a member of California's senate, a man of wealth and strong political connection. The younger Diggs was state architect until recently and lived in Sacramento. He is 27 years old and has had the reputation of being a "high roller."

Caminetti is the son of A. Caminetti, former state senator, and recently appointed commissioner of immigration by President Wilson. Drew Caminetti, the defendant, was a non-commissioned officer of the National Guard of California and was a clerk in the office of the state board of control until March last. He is 27 years old.

Diggs and Caminetti have long been intimate friends. Both are married and have families.

Under the names of Fisher and Whitman, it is alleged that Diggs and Caminetti began to court the Norris and Warrington girls last winter. Finally, things went so far that when the real identity of the men was discovered by the girls the relations of the four did not break off. It was after this that the plan to leave the city began to take shape—the journey that was to land the two couples in the federal net under the white slave law.

Once upon the train, the girls gave themselves up to the plans for the elopement and ceased to rebel. The four traveled in one stateroom. On arrival at Reno, Nev., in early morning the party went to a hotel. Four days later the two couples were arrested living together in a bungalow at Reno.

United States District Attorney John L. McNab went to Sacramento and made a personal investigation of every feature of the case. After the two were indicted on charges of white slavery leading citizens all over the state appealed to the district attorney to take early action in the case.

The case was put on the calendar of May 19, ready to be set for trial in June. Thereafter it was postponed from time to time until matters were brought to a head on June 23 by the resignation of District Attorney McNab. In telegraphing his resignation to President Wilson Mr. McNab said:

McNab's Resignation. "I am ordered by the attorney general over my protest to postpone until autumn the trials of Maury Diggs and Drew Caminetti, indicted for a hideous crime which has shocked the moral sense of the people of California, and this after I have advised the department of justice that attempts have been made to corrupt the government witnesses, and friends of the defendants are publicly boasting that the wealth and political prominence of the defendants' relatives will procure my hand to be stayed through influence at Washington."

Attorney General McReynolds and Secretary of Labor Wilson, the latter brought into the case by the fact that the elder Caminetti, as commissioner of immigration, was one of his subordinate officials, denied that any influence had been brought to bear upon them to obtain a postponement of the Diggs-Caminetti trials. President Wilson thereupon accepted the McNab resignation.

It was expected that Thomas E. Hayden, associate counsel for the government in the Diggs-Caminetti cases, would lead in the prosecution. Learning of protests that he was too inexperienced as a criminal lawyer to participate in the case, Mr. Hayden tendered his resignation to Attorney General McReynolds. The case will now be prosecuted by Attorneys Sullivan and Roche, the government's principal counsel.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS IN EAST Attracts Many Delegates to Boston.

Boston, Aug. 2.—Knights of Columbus are arriving in Boston for the first event of the long program to be carried out at the national convention of the order, which lasts the entire week. The preparations for the reception and entertainment of the thousands of visitors are complete and there will no difficulty in accommodating the great out of town throng.

Tomorrow will be devoted to the reception of the visitors. On Monday the supreme officers and national board of directors will hold their annual meetings. At 9 o'clock Tuesday morning the religious service that always marks the opening of the convention will be held in the Cathedral of the Holy Cross. When this is concluded the delegates will embark for Nantasket and the first of the business sessions of the convention will be held aboard the boat. The sessions will continue through the week and will be interspersed with a variety of entertainment.

Few fraternal societies of America have had such a strong, healthy growth as the Knights of Columbus. From New Haven, Conn., where it was founded in 1882, it has extended into nearly every state and into Canada. There are at present 52 state councils and more than 1,500 subordinate councils, with a total membership approaching 200,000. The present national officers are supreme knight, James A. Flaherty of New Haven; national secretary, William A. McGinley of New Haven, and national treasurer, D. J. Callahan of Washington, D. C.

STICE HOME SOLD. Phillip Hopper of the Sinclair neighborhood has purchased through B. R. Upham the home of James R. Stice just west of Jacksonville. There are 23 acres in the tract and the price paid was $400 per acre. The little farm is nicely improved and is very desirable as a home. This property was purchased in 1903 by Mr. Stice from the heirs of Edwin Hayden for $5,750. Mr. Hayden bought it at master in chancery sale when some of the lands belonging to the Keener estate were sold. The price paid by Mr. Hayden was $2,755. The land has advanced in value with the years and of course improvements have also been made.

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES. The August meeting of the Young Women's Foreign Missionary society of Centenary church will be held on the lawn of Mrs. P. W. Fox, 666 S. West street, Monday evening, August 4th at 7:30.

G. W. Flagg of Centenary church. Westminster church will unite with State Street church in these services.

CHEAP ELECTRICITY. Springfield Journal: In anticipation of the ultimate combining of the municipal lighting station and the plant at the pumping station at the river, by means of which the city will enter the field for the purpose of furnishing current for electric lights to private consumers, Commissioner Spaulding has introduced in the city council an ordinance which suggests a sliding scale of rates which may be charged by the city to private consumers. The ordinance was received and under the rules laid over for one week.

Instead of fixing a flat rate with a charge for service, which is the plan that will be adopted ultimately, the sliding scale is made that parties along the route of the new transmission line may be afforded an opportunity to secure power for lighting purposes for the city. In addition to the rates for current there is also a section fixing rates for power service during the day.

Under the provisions of the ordinance the rate to be charged is apportioned as follows:

For all electric lighting current the consumer shall pay for the first 10 kilowatts used each month at the rate of 8 cents a kilowatt.

For each kilowatt over 10 and not exceeding 20 each month, the consumer shall pay at the rate of 5 cents a kilowatt.

Each consumer using over 20 kilowatts shall pay at the rate of 3 cents a kilowatt a month, with a minimum charge, however, of 50 cents a month.

Under the ordinance the city shall furnish electric power current for day service between 6 o'clock a. m. and 5 o'clock p. m., at the rate of one cent a kilowatt, plus an additional charge of $1.50 a month for each kilowatt of the maximum demand of such consumer during each month.

For arc lamps a nominal 2,000 candle power between sunset and sunrise at a rate of $5 a month for each lamp is provided.

In all cases the usual ten per cent discount if bills are paid on or before the tenth day of each succeeding month, is provided.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Oil and Gas Leases.—A large acreage of oil and gas leases have already been secured in Shelby county and drilling operations will begin soon.

Rainfall Record.—Rainfall at Champaign during April, May, June and July aggregated 5.85 inches, or 9.53 inches less than the average. Peoria received 5.04 inches of rain in July last year and less than one-half inch this year. In June the rainfall was 2 1/2 inches less than during the same period last year.

Better Than Expected.—"Thrashing returns on oats from the south half of the state generally better than expected, 40 @ 50 bu., said a Des Moines message. "Quality fair; test around 29.632 lbs. Not much information from further north. Thrashing will begin next week. Claims made that prospects are for small yields and lighter weight."

Will Have Harness Races.—The directors of the El Paso Fire Association have made an important change in the speed program for the thirty-third annual fair to be held the last week of August. The directors decided to reinstate the harness racing which has been a feature of the El Paso fair for the last twenty-five years.

Pickering Takes Office.—John L. Pickering, the veteran newspaper man, has taken charge as collector of internal revenue in this district.

Pulmoner Saves Life.—The pulmoner saved the life of August Koslowski, aged 56 years, residing two and one-half miles north of Springfield on the Central road. Koslowski with the aid of his two boys was sinking a well on his farm. Mike Gebel, a neighbor farmer, who had been helping in the work, refused to go on further because of the presence of gas, declaring it was dangerous.

Koslowski went into the well alone. He was found in an unconscious condition shortly after.

Horse Kicks Farmer to Death.—George S. Hughes, a wealthy farmer of Elba township, was killed, when a horse which he was leading into the barn, became unmanageable and kicked him. Hughes was 50 years old.

Conductor Hurt at Federal.—Frank Reichle, a conductor, employed by the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis railroad on a local train, running between Alton and Granite City, was quite severely injured Thursday when he fell from a high trestle near Federal, breaking his left arm in two places and badly bruising him in several places about the body. He was removed to a hospital at Alton, where at the last reports he was getting along as well as could be expected.

Average Fifty Bushel.—Elisha Mitchell, residing three miles south of Bloomington, threshed a seven acre field of oats which averaged fifty bushels to the acre. This is an exceptionally large yield, considering the early set backs which all oats crops suffered.

MOVE ON COAST DEFENSES.—New York, Aug. 2.—Governor Island, the headquarters of the eastern division of the United States army, was a beehive of activity today. Everyone there, from Major Gen. Thomas H. Barry, the commander of the division, down to the humblest private, being occupied in the arrangement of the final preparations for participation in the joint naval and army defense exercises to be held in the coast defenses of Long Island sound next week, beginning at midnight tomorrow night.

as well as several flotillas of destroyers.

The war game will not be played with an idea of seeing whether the coast defenses or the navy will come out victorious. The rival forces will be used merely to test certain problems of defense. With this end in view there will be searchlight maneuvers with other exercises to demonstrate the efficiency of fire control and fire action. It is expected that the exercises will be especially valuable in showing improved methods which have been evolved since the exercises in 1905.

DISTINGUISHED DOCTOR AIDS WOMAN BITTEN BY SNAKE

Dr. Edward A. Ayers Saves Life of New Jersey Woman Who Suffered Bites From Copperhead as She Slept.

The following dispatch from Branchville, N. Y., tells how Dr. Edward A. Ayers, a former Jacksonville resident and a brother of John A. and Walter Ayers came to the aid of a woman who was bitten by a copperhead snake. Dr. Ayers is very prominent in his profession.

Branchville, N. Y., Aug. 1.—When Mrs. George Buscher of Sandy-ton township awoke early this morning with a cry of pain her husband told her to "forget it and go to sleep again." She did so, but shortly afterwards she was awakened again by a stinging sensation, in her knee. The first pain had been in her foot.

Buscher lighted a lamp and investigated. He found that a copperhead snake two feet long had bitten his wife twice. Buscher dispatched the snake and sent for a doctor. Dr. Edward A. Ayers of Branchville got there at 7 o'clock, but in spite of his delay, he said the bites would not prove fatal. Nevertheless Mrs. Busche is in great pain.

Buscher believes that the snake had been in the house some time and that while the bed was open yesterday morning it crawled into a fold of the sheet.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES

Ada county, Idaho, has a school district containing 324 square miles. Seven hundred home gardens were started in Port Jervis, N. Y., this year under the direction of the school authorities.

Every high school graduate in Nebraska receives a letter from the University of Nebraska congratulating him on his education and urging him to consider the advantages offered by the State University.

A vocational summer school, with practical men and women in charge of it, is in operation in Baltimore, Md., this year. Printing and woodwork are among the subjects taught the boys; the girls have cooking, sewing, and other household branches.

The National Kindergarten College in Chicago, is devoting a large part of its summer program to the methods of Dr. Montessori. Two of Dr. Montessori's graduate students, who have spent over a year with her in Rome, have charge of the practice work with the children.

School children and teachers of Pointe Coupee Parish, in the flood district of Louisiana, planted 15,000 fruit and pecan trees last year. Supt. Trudeau has also a plan whereby road work in the parish will be done by school boys.

Students at the Georgia State Normal School at Athens, Ga., study rural sociology as applied to their own districts, so that of the locality better than those who have lived in it all their lives. How this work makes for community betterment is told by E. C. Branson in a bulletin just issued by the United States Bureau of Education.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK.

Washington, Aug. 2.—The trial of the so-called Diggs-Caminetti white slave case, the postponement of which resulted in the resignation of United States District Attorney McNab of San Francisco and his charges that influence had been brought to bear upon Attorney General McReynolds to delay the trial, is scheduled to begin Tuesday before Judge William C. Van Fleet in the United States district court at San Francisco.

Beginning at midnight Sunday and continuing through the week, the Long Island sound and Narragansett bay region will be the scene of the most extensive joint naval and army defense exercises that have been held in some years. Vessels of the Atlantic fleet and the artillery corps of the New York and New England districts will engage in a series of maneuvers for the purpose of working out important problems of coast defense.

The highest officers of the army and navy will witness the exercises. Following a rather tame campaign, the Democrats of Virginia will engage in a primary Tuesday for the purpose of selecting candidates for governor and other state officers to be voted for in November. H. C. Stuart of Russell county, is the only candidate for the gubernatorial nomination, and several other candidates on the ticket will be named without opposition. The principal contests are for the nominations for lieutenant governor and attorney general.

Several thousand eminent leaders of medical science from all parts of the world will assemble in London the middle of the week for the 17th meeting of the International Congress of Medicine. Another notable gathering of world wide character will be the International Geological congress, which is to begin its sessions Thursday in Toronto.

Numerous other important gatherings are scheduled for the week. Among them will be the national convention of the Knights of Columbus, in Boston; the national convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence union, in Philadelphia; the international convention of the Catholic Order of Foresters, in Louisville; the national meeting of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, in Baltimore; the annual meeting of the League of American Municipalities, in Winnipeg; the annual meeting of the United States League of Building and Loan associations, in Milwaukee; the Leth-Canada Irrigation congress, in Leth-bridge, and the annual meeting of the Canadian division of the International Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, in Montreal.

Other interesting events of the week will include the Perry centennial celebration at Milwaukee, the "Stampede" carnival at Winnipeg, the national rowing championships at Boston, and the international track and field championships of the Pacific coast, at Victoria, B. C.

GIANTS GET EVEN BREAK WITH CUBS

TESREAU COMES BACK STRONG AND HOLDS CHICAGO SAFE.

Big Jeff Allows but Four Hits and After the Second Inning, When Chicago's Lone Tally Is Made, Is Invincible—Leach and Evers Clash.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—Big Jeff Tesreau, who met defeat in the initial game of the series between New York and Chicago, came back strong today and enabled McGraw's men to get an even break by winning the final clash 2 to 1.

During the game Manager Evers and Outfielder Leach clashed because Leach signalled at first base for the hit and run by Evers, who was at bat slowed up in order to avoid the batted ball and was forced at second. The manager spoke to Leach as he went to the bench and when the team took the field Leach made a rush at the manager, but was intercepted by Bridwell, who acted as pacifier. The score:

"JOHNSON DAY" ATTRACTS LARGEST CROWD OF SEASON

President Wilson Sees Washington Defeat Detroit 3 to 2.

Washington, Aug. 2.—"Johnson Day" attracted President Wilson and the largest crowd of the season to American league park today to see Walter Johnson, Washington's star pitcher, presented with a huge silver loving cup filled with crisp new $10 bills. Johnson won his game 3 to 2. The day marked the sixth anniversary of the pitcher's big league career. The loving cup was presented to him by the "fans." In it were $500 in bills and as he accepted the gift, players of both teams picked up a yellow back and wiped his brow with it.

President Wilson joined heartily in the ceremonies, cheering and applauding as loud as any of the spectators. He arrived after Johnson's victory and gave the pitcher a great hand when he entered the box.

Score by innings: R. H. E.

SOME OFF-SIDE CHUTES

The sure-thing man and the suspicious driver were handed a haymaker by the Grand Circuit judges at Grand Rapids on Friday. The betting on the Mack Thistle-Strathstern race excited the curiosity of the arbiters, who unseated Dean from behind Mack Thistle. Murphy, however, finally won the race with Strathstern.

When the South African millionaire, J. B. Joel, paid $200,000 for Prince Palatine in London a few days ago, it is quite possible he was handed a lemon. In the Good Wood cup race Thursday the horse was a rank outsider in a field of six common place platers, and when Prince Palatine reached the finish line it was a most distressed nag.

Manager Rowland of Dubuque is angling with the national commission with the idea of having Hy Jasper declared an outlaw. Since Comiskey purchased his release for September delivery, Jasper has refused to play with Dubuque and Rowland wants him banished because he is playing semi-pro ball at St. Louis.

Rain has put a "damper" on the Long Island cricket matches. Time off for lunch has been taken until Tuesday.

Horace Fogel has initiated a flirtation with the new Federal league. He will attend a meeting of the directors at Indianapolis, and will probably offer them some of that $16,000,000 he has gathered up piece meal to put the American and National leagues out of commission.

The Giants are popular on the west side in Chicago. While they were lambasting the Cubs on Friday the hoodlums were bouncing things off the head of Umpire Byron.

Zero outbreak from Ping Bodie: "Bert Daniels is a conchead." Some of that kind of "chone" grafted into the "scone" of P. g would guarantee him a regular job in the White Sox lineup.

Rube Peters has shot his bolt in semi-fast company. Buck Rourke of Omaha has ditched him to the Northwestern bushers for a consideration of $1,000. Rube is the grandest morning glory who ever faced a batsman, but in the regular afternoon pastime his Cinderellas are always frost bitten.

Winnipeg, Canada, during the week of Aug. 11 will be the Mecca of a host of second rate boxers during the round up or home-coming festivities. Carl Morris, the Oklahoma giant, and Jack Cox of Springfield, Mo., will be among the "hopes."

The German government is preparing to send over a delegation of athletes to acquire the honor of American training, so that they may be fitted for a showing in the Olympic games in Berlin in 1916.

Next Wednesday Kansas City will hold its Marathon swimming race in the muddy waters of the Missouri. A feature in this year's race will be the entrance of a mother against her son and the field. Mrs. Lydia Bacheller entered her name Friday. Her son, who is 21 years of age, entered some weeks ago. The lady has been in the game about eight years and is credited a strong swimmer in the surf, having acquired the habit at San Diego, Cal.

The tennis champions, McLoughlin, Clackett, Williams and Johnson will arrive from England Tuesday or Wednesday with the Davis championship trophy.

TOURISTS' TAKE SIDE TRIP TO PAOTINGFU

CITY IS ONE HUNDRED MILES FROM PEKING.

Visit Mission Station Occupied by Rev. Alexander Cunningham of Murrayville—Gives Account of Work of Missionary.

(By S. W. Nichols)
Paotingfu, China.

Dear Journal:
This is a side trip from Peking and one of great satisfaction. Paotingfu is a city of about a hundred thousand inhabitants and is nearly a hundred miles distant from Peking and has two mission stations; one of the American Board of Christian Missions, and one of the Presbyterian Board, and it is especially the latter that I am visiting, for it is the station occupied by Rev. Alexander Cunningham of Murrayville, and so widely and popularly known all over Morgan county and vicinity. He has relatives in Jacksonville and many other parts, all of whom will be glad to hear directly of him and his work.

Mr. Cunningham and his faithful wife, whom he met at the normal college and who was a resident of Danville, Ill., came to China in 1890, and the time will be well remembered by many in our city and vicinity. They were assigned to work in Peking, the capital of the country, and remained there for twenty years. Of course the first great task of all volunteers, as the acquisition of the language and it is a fearful task, which is enough to try the courage and faith of the strongest. His first work was this study and the charge of Truth Hill, an academy for boys, and the pastorate of the Second church, the work of a similar day school for boys and one for girls. The land occupied was given by the wealthy and influential citizens of the place and is a fine piece of ground conveniently located and surrounded by the usual wall, making the compound. It also comprises the residences of the various workers, who have comfortable homes, for their lives and health are so valuable it is economy to take good care of them. There are also several large government schools in this vicinity and many efforts are being made, with good success, to get hold of the students and exercise a good influence over them and get them to attend religious services as far as possible.

The force here now consists of Rev. W. A. Mather, who has charge of the country work and does what he can for the spiritual welfare of two million people, the work radiating from twelve centers or country churches and stations manned by active native helpers. Mrs. Cunningham teaches algebra and music in the boarding school, has charge of the women's work and Bible classes, and at present is working up a class of lady teachers in the government school. She has now three pupils and they are very interesting young people, whom it is a pleasure to know and who will surely become of great value to the good work if they continue long enough with Mrs. Cunningham and benefit by her teaching. Rev. A. K. Whallon and wife have not long been here and are studying the language and doing what teaching they can.

Miss Newton has charge of the Union Memorial girls' school, which is maintained jointly by the two missions here. Miss Gumbrell has charge of the evangelistic work among women. Dr. Lewis and his assistant, Dr. Wang, have charge of the Taylor Memorial hospital. At present Dr. Lewis is absent, but Dr. Wang, while a native, is a thoroughly educated physician and surgeon and Dr. Lewis is especially capable as both physician and surgeon and does a large amount of surgical operations and with a good degree of success. They have a force of eight male nurses and about twenty female nurses and attendants.

Dr. Mand Mackey has charge of the Hodge Memorial hospital for women and children and has four trained nurses with her in her work. She is a very capable person in her sphere and has a fine degree of success. The parents of the boys who graduated from the academy of which Mr. Cunningham had charge, though none of the students stood in the same relation as the one whom they raised. One night a year or so ago they were called to the door, where they heard quite a commotion and responding they found there Dr. Wang and family. The doctor is a regular graduate of a fine medical college and a successful physician and had come here to take a place as assistant in the hospital and he, his wife and children, couldn't go to their abode without paying their respects to "Grandpa and Grandma" Cunningham, who were held in such great esteem by them, as he was one of their boys.

These are some of the many little, or great, incidents which go to prove the wonderful compensations that a missionary has in his work and they might be multiplied many times.

There they remained until 1899, when they returned on furlough to their home and fortunately during the awful Boxer troubles which so devastated the land. They eagerly watched every paper they came across for news of their fellow workers in the field and though at the risk of life itself they longed to be back and do what they could. They returned in the latter part of 1900 and found their colleagues either dead or refugees, the mission property destroyed and want and desolation everywhere. Mr. Cunningham at once went to work getting things into shape. The two churches were merged into one and he went to work auditing accounts and arranging for indemnity for damages sustained.

Mrs. Cunningham went bravely to work gathering together the boys to the boarding school and had charge of Truth Hall up to 1909, the time for their second furlough. While his work was largely evangelistic and his labors were abundantly blessed in many ways, the membership of the church being increased, while new life was infused and a general improvement all along the lines easily noted.

Then came the time for the second furlough and right here it is best to say something regarding these furloughs of which I have spoken a number of times. They serve a purpose in several directions. They are necessary for the health and physical welfare of the missionaries, for generally the climate of this country is hardly as good as that of the land they have left and they need a change. They need the influence of their friends at home, for here they have few of their kind and it is important that they keep up with the times. Then too the furloughs are far from periods of complete rest, as a good part of the time the missionaries are required to travel about the country presenting the work and the cause of missions and arousing the churches at home to a sense of their duty. This they did most faithfully both times they were at home and there is every reason to believe their efforts had good results. He was kindly received and heard gladly not only by the common people, but by all who came within reach of their voices.

On his return he was requested to come to this place, as the faithful Dr. Lowrie, who had done so much needed a change and he accordingly obeyed the call and with regret left the place which has been his Chinese home so long and repaired with his faithful wife to his new field of labor three years ago. And here it is in order to say that he is yet comparatively in the prime of life. He is but 52 years of age and is remarkably hale and hearty, vigorous and active and enjoying excellent health and the same may be said of his noble wife, who heartily joins him in all his labors. They have been called on to pass deeply through the waters of affliction in the loss of their only child, a sweet, precious little girl, who was taken from them some years ago by that dread disease, diphtheria. They have a pleasant home in the mission compound and are actively engaged in work and accomplish an amount which would make the ordinary individual wonder how they can do it, but they work right on and what is the most pleasant of all, are very happy in it and couldn't be induced to give it up and go back. The joy they take in their labors is truly to be envied and they could poorly afford to change places with any wealthy magnate at home.

The plant here consists of a church, the Taylor Memorial hospital for men, the Hodge Memorial hospital for women, a boarding school for boys, a similar one for girls, a day school for boys and one for girls. The land occupied was given by the wealthy and influential citizens of the place and is a fine piece of ground conveniently located and surrounded by the usual wall, making the compound. It also comprises the residences of the various workers, who have comfortable homes, for their lives and health are so valuable it is economy to take good care of them. Dr. Lewis and his assistant, Dr. Wang, have charge of the Taylor Memorial hospital. At present Dr. Lewis is absent, but Dr. Wang, while a native, is a thoroughly educated physician and surgeon and Dr. Lewis is especially capable as both physician and surgeon and does a large amount of surgical operations and with a good degree of success. They have a force of eight male nurses and about twenty female nurses and attendants.

Dr. Mand Mackey has charge of the Hodge Memorial hospital for women and children and has four trained nurses with her in her work. She is a very capable person in her sphere and has a fine degree of success.

THE CAUSE OF HOME RULE.

Boston, Aug. 2.—Measures for sustaining the Irish parliamentary party and its leader, John Redmond, in the closing stages of the home rule struggle will be discussed by the national executive committee of the United Irish League of America at an important meeting in this city tomorrow. National President Michael J. Ryan of Philadelphia is here to attend the meeting, together with Patrick Egan, former United States minister to Chile, and a number of other noted leaders of the Irish cause. The principal object of the meeting is to devise ways and means by which the Irish party may be sustained financially as well as morally in the final stage of the home rule fight. As a result of plans to be formulated at the meeting, it is expected that $40,000 will be raised to aid the cause. The meeting also will map out a program of mass meetings to be held in every large city of the United States.

BRIEF NOTES FROM THE REALM OF FASHION.

It is believed the novelty of the fall styles will not lie so much in form as in the beauty of materials and their colorings.

In the autumn frocks the bodices will be transparent, semi-decollete, and simply trimmed with fichus, frills and collars.

The latest novelty in furs shown by New York dealers for the coming season is dyed fox skins of pale yellow and dark gold.

Drapery, it is expected, will be used on the skirts this winter, but not in the complicated arrangement that has characterized it lately.

Skirts of broadened cotton ratine are delightful with summer blouses. Tan, rose and blue are the favored shades. Such skirts are almost always draped.

Some of the new frounces are being cut on the circle. Also, they are made from pleatings. But no matter how many frounces, the foundation skirts will be narrow.

Stockings with embroidered butterflies about the ankles are made for evening wear. Each wing of the butterflies is potted with rhinestones. Other white silk stockings show embroidered anklets, done in white, and still others show lace anklets.

Imported models on which fall and winter styles for women's evening gowns are based are leather and cloth, or combinations, among which red, green, gray, white and champagne are to be featured in strap and colonial effects.

Hats made entirely of waterproof tulle are trimmed in knots or frills placed close beside one another. A bow of ribbon or a chiffon rose adorns one side of the hat. Hats are also made entirely of ribbon, some stretched plain, some in folds, but never gathered.

Distinctly attractive is a big flat tulle hat, like a very wide sailor, with the brim shorter in front, and round at the back, and a ribbon of silver gruze, that looks as if it had been rivant to fasten neatly with a bow like a man's, but had been forgotten, and left with the ends hanging just over the edge on either side of the back.

The large garden hats of leghorn, maline and lace are trimmed with black velvet ribbon, which is drawn about the crown and passing through slits at the back, is tied in a flat bow at the back. A single flower is placed at the side near the edge of the brim. Frequently chin straps of maline or velvet are a feature of this dainty confection.

In Paris tulle is no longer enjoying the favor it did a while back. The latest thing is to have a black velvet hat, trimmed with ermine, very narrow, and perhaps two very high, very scraggy feathers leaning toward the back. The shape of this new hat is rather like the military fatigue cap, very flat at the sides, with two velvet pointed wings stretching far away behind, followed by the two scraggy feathers, and just above the face line, leaving a rim of velvet, the narrow band of ermine.

A very graceful and becoming dinner gown displayed in a New York shop is of silver gray tulle, embroidered in long lines with tiny diamonds, white and black, ending beyond the deep hem of the tulle tunic, in very light, flat silver tassels; a love belt of deep orange and copper, and soft tissue, with one big satin rose, orange with a rose colored heart, tucked into it, completes the costume.

Some of the recent hot days at the summer resorts have brought on the scene a number of lovely embroidered batiste gowns, with lace let in amid the embroidery, fllet, point de Venise, Alencon, and the rest, and net gowns trimmed with shadow lace and they'ret embroidered in a feature in thicker stuff. Beads, bugles, pearls and diamonds all figure on evening dresses, which are brilliant and scintillating, and overdresses of chiffon and net thus treated are decidedly a feature in the fashions of the hour.

The three-quarter length coat-wrap for evening wear has supplanted the popularity of the full length coat, and the favorites are fashioned of soft damasks and brocades. A handsome wrap of this style is carried out in purple broche, with a pale purple background shot with gold threads and the conventional design of a deeper tone. Gold tissue is used for the lining, and a wrap has a deep shawl collar and cuffs of black satin. An upstanding frill of pale lavender chiffon softens the effect of the collar.

CHRISTINE NILSSON 70 YEARS OLD.

Stockholm, Aug. 2.—Christine Nilsson, famous a quarter a century ago as one of the world's greatest lyrical and dramatic artists, will observe her 70th birthday anniversary tomorrow in quiet retirement at her summer home near the village of Hussaby, where she was born August 3, 1843, the daughter of a poor peasant.

The once famous singer, who is known in private life as Gouss de Miranda, made her operatic debut in this city more than fifty years ago. She first studied here under Berwald, and later in Paris was tutored by Victor J. Nasse and Wartel. When she first appeared in London, in 1867, she scored a great success, especially in "Faust," and her future was assured. Her debut in New York was made in 1870 and was hailed with great enthusiasm in the musical world. In speaking recently of her visits to America Mme Nilsson said: "I love dearly America and think often of all the success I had there, and will always keep that dear and splendid country in affectionate memory in my heart."

Since her retirement from professional life some twenty-eight years ago the famous singer has divided her time between the south of France and her native Sweden. The Count Angel Miranda, who was her second husband, died in 1902.

PUBLIC UTILITIES BILL WIDE IN ITS SCOPE

CONFERS IMPORTANT POWERS UPON NEW COMMISSION.

Will become Effective January First When All Utilities of the State Will Pass Under Its Control—Provisions of the Law Are Somewhat Complex and Study is Necessary to Understand All Details.

The public utilities bill passed by the last general assembly is a measure which will go into effect Jan. 1 and will be far reaching in its effect. The utilities board will take over all of the powers of the railway and warehouse commission and have charge of every utility in the entire state. The law is of necessity voluminous, covering as it does such vast interests and there are but few people who have looked up its provisions.

In several articles in the Journal some points from the law will be given in order that the public may come to an understanding of the meaning and scope of the law.

1. Organization of the Commission—

The public utilities commission will supersede the present railroad and warehouse commission and will exercise many of the powers hitherto exercised by the railroad and warehouse commission and in addition other powers. It will be composed of five members who will be appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate for terms of six years (Sec. 1).

II. What Kinds of Business are Subject to Regulation by the Commission—

The term "public utilities" as defined in the Public Utilities Act includes all corporations, persons or groups of persons which own, manage or operate within the state of Illinois directly or indirectly for public use any plant or property for:

- A. Transportation of persons or property.
- B. For telegraph or telephone purposes.
- C. For production, storage, transmission, sale or furnishing of heat, cold, light, power.
- D. For transporting oil or gas by pipe line.
- E. For storing of goods.
- F. For conducting the business of wharfing.
- G. Or that may control or own any franchise or license to engage in any such business (Sec. 10).

III. Powers of the Commission—

A. Power over accounts of public utilities and form in which same shall be kept.

1. The commission may classify public utilities and prescribe a uniform system of accounts for each class and prescribe the manner in which same shall be kept (Sec. 11).

The forms of accounts prescribed by the commission shall show sources of income. All items of expense and shall preserve distinction between operation and new construction expenses; the commission may require the keeping of depreciation accounts and prescribe proper rates of depreciation for several classes of property (Sec. 13, 14).

B. Power to Make Valuations—
The commission is given power to ascertain the value of property of any public utility in the state and to make re-valuations from time to time (Sec. 20).

C. Power to Prescribe Forms of Rate Schedules—

The commission is given the power to prescribe the form in which the rate schedules which are required to be filed with the commission by public utilities shall be prepared and may change from time to time (Sec. 34).

D. Power to Investigate the Reasonableness of Rates—
The commission is given the power either upon complaint by its own initiative to hold a hearing and investigate the reasonableness of all rates charged by any public utility and of all rules, regulations and practices in connection therewith. The commission may further, after such hearing, establish new rates, rules, regulations or practices in lieu thereof (Sec. 41).

It is given power to suspend all new schedules filed and enter upon hearing as to whole or any item of same on complaint or on own initiative (Sec. 33).

It is given the power to establish joint rates and classification over such lines of two or more carriers and to prescribe division of such rates between the carriers (Sec. 42).

K. Power Over Connections, Crossings, Spurs and Service of Carriers—

The commission is given the power to require connections or spurs to be installed for shippers and to compel track connection between two or more railroads, or two or more street railroads (Sec. 45-46).

It is given the power upon a hearing to prescribe that more cars shall be run or better services shall be given by any railway or street railway, and to modify car and train schedule (Sec. 51). To adopt reasonable rules and regulations with reference to demurrage or storage, lading and other charges with reference to transportation of freight, and to establish switching rules and prices, and switching limits (Sec. 52).

F. Powers Over Joint Use of Facilities—
The commission is given power to require one public utility to allow its conduits, subway tracks, wires, holes and other property on any street or highway to be used by another public utility when the public convenience requires and to prescribe reasonable compensation therefor (Sec. 48).

G. Power to require extension and addition to plants and equipment and the efficient methods of operation—

The commission is given power after hearing, upon its own motion or upon complaint to prescribe proper regulation, methods and facilities to be adopted by any public utility in the conduct of its business (Sec. 49). Is given the power, after such hearing, to require improvements, for additions to facilities and in case any such extension requires joint action by two more utilities, the commission may fix the proportion of cost of such extension to be borne by each of them (Sec. 50).

H. Powers with reference to contract between utilities and the public—

The commission is authorized to prescribe the conditions which may be incorporated in the contract between a public utility and the public and may prescribe form (Sec. 53).

I. Power to establish units and standards of measure—

The commission is given the power to determine standard units for the measuring of any products, or commodities and to prescribe tests for the efficiency of the service.

It is given the power to test meters and investigate all conditions with reference thereto. For this purpose the employees of the commission are given the right to enter upon the premises of any public utility for the purpose of making any such tests (Sec. 54).

J. Power to investigate accidents—

The commission will investigate all accidents occurring within the state upon or in connections with the property or business of any public utility, resulting in loss of life or injury to person or property which may require in the judgment of the commission to be investigated (Sec. 56).

K. Power to require safety appliances, etc.—

The commission is given power upon hearing, to prescribe in the operation of the plant for business of any utility the use of appropriate safety or other appliances, including the installation of interlocker for protective devices at grade crossings and at junctions, block signals upon lines of carriers. It is further given power to investigate the condition of all appliances of any common carrier and to prescribe improvements deemed necessary with reference thereto. It may prescribe the rate of speed of trains, operating over any portion of the track or bridges or other structures of a common carrier for defective or if necessary may forbid such operation until repairs are made (Sec. 57).

L. Power over street and railroad crossings—

The commission is given power after hearing, to abolish any grade crossing of a railroad or street railway within any street or highway or of a railroad with a street railway to prescribe the terms upon which a separation of grades shall be had (Sec. 58).

M. Power of Investigation—

The commission is given general power of investigation in every manner and respect the capitalization, franchises, conditions of plant and methods of operation of business of any public utility and may for the purpose of such investigation, examine all accounts, records, maps, date or premises and physical property on any utility. In connection with such investigation it may require any person to testify under oath with reference to facts within his knowledge and to produce any books, documents, papers or records before such commission (Sec. 63, 8 and 21).

NOTES FROM THE LABOR WORLD.

Sioux City unions are planning the erection of a labor temple.

The Montana Federation of Labor holds its annual convention at Roundup this month.

One thousand bakery wagon drivers in Chicago have declared for the six day week.

The trades and labor congress of Canada wants the present alien labor law repealed.

The trades and labor council of Calgary is endeavoring to organize every branch of labor in that city.

September 22 is the date fixed for the opening in Montreal of the 29th annual meeting of trades and labor congress of Canada.

A report of the interstate commerce commission gives 1,699,218 as the total number of men and women employed by the steam railways of the United States.

Charles C. Shay of New York was elected president of the International Alliance of Theatrical State Employees at the recent convention in Seattle.

According to an official estimate now fewer than 3,000 of the 19,000 members of the Typographical Association of Great Britain are without regular employment.

The state labor department of New York reports that the number of labor organizations in New York state is increasing, and the percentage of idleness among their numbers is decreasing.

The legislatures of many states have this year made good progress legislating in favor of a uniform child labor law, in accordance with suggestions by the national conference of commissioners on uniform state laws.

The Rag Pickers and Clip Sorters' union of New York is threatening a general strike for a 15 per cent advance in wages, a 54 hour working week and recognition of the union.

The freight clerks employed on the Erie railroad between New York and Buffalo have formed an organization through which they intend to ask for an increase of 20 per cent in their pay. They are also aroused by an order canceling their vacations for this year.

Four thousand telegraph operators and station agents employed by the railroads within the state of New York will receive two days' rest each month without loss of pay by the action taken by the New York commissioner of labor against the railroads to compel them to comply with the Dorst law.

James O'Connell, whom President Wilson has appointed a member of the industrial commission, has served as vice president of the American Federation of Labor for 14 years and at present is also president of the metal trades department of the federation, which embraces all the various grades working in metal.

A contributory women's compensation scheme has been introduced in the Victorian parliament. The plan provides for joint contributions from state employers and workmen to a state accident insurance fund controlled by a commission which will have power to issue policies to employers.

THE LADIES' AID SOCIETY.

We've put some fine improvements on the good old church at home. It's just the latest kilner, with a gallery and dome;

It seats a thousand people—finest church in all the town. And when it was completed, we planked ten thousand down;

That is we paid five thousand—every deacon did his best— And the Ladies' Aid society, it promised all the rest.

We've got an organ in the church—very finest in the land. It's a thousand pipes or more, its melody is grand;

And when we sit on cushioned pews and hear the master play; It carries us to realms of bliss unnumbered miles away.

It cost a cool three thousand, and it's stodo the hardest test; We'll pay a thousand on it—the Ladies' Aid the rest.

They'll give a hundred sociables, can'ttass, too, and teas; They'll bake a thousand angel cakes, and tons of cream they'll freeze.

They'll bog and scrape, and toil and sweat for seven years or more, And then they'll start all over for a carpet for the floor.

No, it isn't just like digging out the money from your vest, When the Ladies' Aid gets busy and says, "We'll pay the rest."

Of course, we're proud of your big church, from pulpit up to spire; It is the darling of our eyes, the crown of our desire.

But when I see the sisters work to raise the cash that lacks, I somehow feel the church is built on women's tired backs.

And sometimes I can't help thinking when we reach the regions blest, That men will get the toil and sweat, and the Ladies' Aid "the rest."

THE WORLD'S LATEST FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

SETS NEW LOW RECORD FOR SUMMER DULLNESS

TOTAL BUSINESS ON STOCK EX-CHANGE APPROXIMATED 63-
500 SHARES.

Corn and Wheat Options Were Higher as Result of Unbroken Drought—Treasury Department's Plan is Meeting With Favor.

(By Associated Press)

New York, Aug. 2.—A new low record for mid-summer dullness was scored by the stock exchange today.
Total business of the two hours approximated 63,500 shares, compared with 64,000 shares on July 11 last, that day breaking all low records for something like sixteen years. About the only interesting news was contained in despatches from western and southern points to the effect that the treasury department's plan for helping the movement of crops was meeting with favor. Wheat and corn options were higher as a result of the unbroken drought in the southwest.
In the early dealings leaders like
Union Pacific, Steel, Amalgamated,
Reading and Canadian Pacific all fell substantial fractions but recoveries were established in most instances, Canadian Pacific more than regaining its loss. Steel was the only issue in which dealings approached the normal a block of 5,500 shares, changing hands at a price midway between the low and high. The feature of the bank statement was the actual cash loss of about $4,000,000 where a gain was expected. The loan increase was nominal while reserves were reduced by $1,949,000.

Help do Wonders for the Blood.

A few doses of that wonderful blood purifier, S. S. S., will start activities in the cellular tissues of the body and soon show decided changes in the skin. The skin is but a fine network of tiny blood vessels, and the specific action of S. S. S. is declared to be a pronounced stimulation of the activity of these cells. Certain it is that in a surprisingly short time any skin eruption shows a most remarkable change; it begins to dry up; the skin scales off in tiny flakes, and soon a layer of clear, healthy and firm tissue results.

The reason for this is in the peculiar stimulation of S. S. S., which enables the cells in the skin to select from the blood the nutrient it requires for regeneration.

This fact has been demonstrated year in and year out in a wonderful number of cases of severe skin diseases that had seemed to be incurable.

You can obtain S. S. S. at any well stocked drug store, if you insist upon it, but be sure you are not talked into something "just as good."

S. S. S. is prepared by the Swift Specific Co., 180 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Write for their illustrated book on skin diseases.

RECALLS EARLY CATTLE BUSINESS IN ILLINOIS

BREEDERS' GAZETTE WRITER TELLS OF GIGANTIC OPERATIONS OF THE CATTLE KINGS.

Stories of John T. Alexander and Jacob Strawn Read Now Almost Like Fiction—Mr. Alexander at One Time Owned More Than 33,000 Acres of Illinois Land and His Annual Cattle Sales Ran Well Into the Millions.

Under the caption of "Cattle Kings of Illinois" a writer in the Breeders' Gazette tells the intensely interesting story of the operations of John T. Alexander and Jacob Strawn, who long held the title they earned as cattle kings of Illinois. The article mentioned was written by a staff correspondent of the Gazette, signing himself J. E. P., who came to Morgan county several months ago to gather the facts for his story, which mainly tells of the splendid accomplishments of the late John T. Alexander. The article is republished herewith by permission of the Breeders' Gazette.

When Illinois Was a Pasture.

Much has been written of the cattle barons of the trans-Mississippi region, but in the scope of their operations John T. Alexander and Jacob Strawn, his rival, exceeded many of the conspicuous operators in the rise and fall of the range industry. Central Illinois in the ante-bellum period was a vast bluegrass pasture, breeding many cattle, but making good deficiency in local production by heavy drafts on Missouri and other sections of the trans-Mississippi region. The subsequent reign of King Corn was then barely in the incubation stage. Grass was the beef maker's principal reliance and long caravans of fat cattle were shipped to markets east of the Allegheny mountains after the railroads came. Prior to that time immense droves of bullocks were trailed across the level country to the eastern mountain ranges, over which they climbed to reach Lancaster, Philadelphia and New York. Not until well along in the sixties did the cultivation of corn begin on an extensive scale, and the corn fed steer became conspicuous at the market. After the grazing period corn speedily took possession of the whole of central Illinois until now less than 15 per cent remains in pasture, whereas in the days of the cattle barons an exactly reverse condition existed. At that time fully 85 per cent of such counties as Sangamon, Morgan and Logan were in grass.

mon, Morgan and Logan were in grass.

Drove Cattle Long Distances.

It was the custom in the early days to drive stock cattle across the Mississippi from Missouri, Iowa and Kansas, purchasing being done during the fall months. By the early part of winter central Illinois pastures would be fully stocked with three and four year old bullocks that were allowed to graze all through the winter and following summer, three acres of this rich bluegrass being allowed to the steer, and on this they waxed fat. There are men now living in Missouri and Illinois who drove cattle for the cattle kings of the sixties and seventies. Jacob Strawn and John T. Alexander, from the same breeding ground west of the Mississippi into central Illinois. These herds numbered 300 to 400 head and leisurely grazed across the open country, traveling 15 miles or so daily. During the war the trade was more or less interrupted, but the practice was continued until settlement and the railroads rendered trailing both unnecessary and impossible.

Among the cattle operators of Illinois John T. Alexander was, by far the most conspicuous by reason of the magnitude of his transactions, but he was antedated by Jacob Strawn, who located in Morgan county in 1827. The old Strawn homestead near Jacksonville possesses historic interest. Jacob Strawn came from Ohio and a few years later was probably the most extensive cattle dealer in the world, but his operations were to a large extent local and his most distant shipping point St. Louis. His pastures in Morgan county embraced some 15,000 acres and his business reached its maximum volume about 1860.

Survivors of the period recall Strawn's free handed methods. He purchased cattle by the thousand, fixing the price on mere verbal description as to quality and weight. Frequently at delivery time no one was on hand to receive the cattle, but they were driven into the Strawn pastures and left with the expectation that payment would be prompt. Both Strawn and his successor, Alexander, were always ready to buy cattle, in fact, they were the market of that period.

Began Cattle Business as Boy.

Strawn was at the height of his career when John T. Alexander came on the scene. He has been regarded as America's greatest cattleman in a commercial sense. In the strict sense of the term he was a pastoralist and trader, not an agriculturist. His parents were natives of Ireland, who migrated to Virginia in 1818 and in 1824 joined the exodus to the Mississippi valley, settling in Jefferson county, Ohio. John T. Alexander was the oldest of a family of eleven children; his education was on the farm. He was endowed with that faculty termed cattle sense and at the age of 15 was entrusted by his father with entire charge of a drove of cattle sent to Philadelphia. He sold them to advantage, collected the money and took it safely home. At the age of 17 he was purchasing cattle in Illinois to replenish his father's Ohio pastures, and it is related that this search took him down into the Sangamon country, where he was so struck with its natural advantages from a cattle standpoint that he determined to migrate.

In 1840 the Alexanders settled in Morgan county then a cattle range bounded by the horizon. Mr. Alexander accumulated a herd of steers, pasturing on the public domain, and for half a decade prospered in a moderate way. But the country filled up, meaning, creating the necessity of owning land or getting out of the cattle business as far as that locality was concerned, and in 1848 he purchased 3,000 acres adjoining his original half section homestead at prices ranging from 7 1/2 cents to $3 an acre. In 1855 he acquired another thousand acres at $30 an acre, indicating how rapid the advance in values had been. In 1857 he bought 700 acres more at $50 per acre and in 1859 he acquired 1,500 acres of the Strawn holdings at $30 per acre. In 1864 he secured 853 acres at $20 to $75 per acre making his total ownership of 7,233 acres of the choicest land in Illinois, and in 1866 he purchased the stock farm of Michael Sullivan in Champaign county Illinois, containing 26,000 acres, at $11 to $12 per acre.

It was during this period of purchase that Alexander acquired the title of "Cattle King." His transactions were on an enormous scale. His buyers searched every nook and cranny of the cattle producing region of the Mississippi Valley, and Alexander, on the Wabash Railroad in Morgan Co., Ill., was the largest cattle shipping station in the world. Entire trains of cattle destined for eastern markets were daily loaded there and almost the entire population was on the Alexander payroll. Thousands of other cattle for which he paid but never saw were loaded at innumerable points for eastern markets. For a pastoralist he had emerged into a speculator on probably the most gigantic scale the live stock industry has ever witnessed. He ruled the markets of the East and was the Napoleon of the cattle trade. His name was more familiar to the West than that of Vanderbilt or A. T. Stewart. His annual cattle shipments for many years exceeded 50,000 head and in 1868 reached 75,000. For a lengthy period his sales on eastern markets exceeded $4,000,000 annually and it is related that prior to his Champaign county purchase an inventory of his assets showed 7,233 acres of land, averaging $75 per acre in value, $100,000 in bank, 7,000 on his Morgan county pastures and not a dollar in debt.

Cattle Mortality Caused Loss.

Such extensive speculative operations, however, had the result of entailing financial embarrassment. In 1871 Alexander had to contract his business and part with his Champaign county holdings. The embarrassment was due to many causes, not the least serious of which was cattle mortality by splenic fever, by which he lost $100,000. He also sustained heavy losses by shrinkage in cattle values and the Champaign county investment proved disastrous. He also became involved in railroad complications. Then as now carriers were keen competitors for lucrative live stock traffic and in 1871 Alexander severed his relations with the Pennsylvania Railroad, making a contract with the New York Central by which that company gave him a low rate conditional to a specified tonnage. By way of resentment the Pennsylvania put merely nominal rates into effect, glutting eastern markets and crippling Alexander's business, which had become so colossal as to be unwieldy. To carry on such gigantic operations he was compelled to trust to innumerable assistants, many of whom proved either incompetent or unfaithful, and confronted with liabilities aggregating $1,200,000 he was forced to make an assignment, but his estate was sufficient not only to pay every creditor, but leave him a large sum for a fresh start in life. It was while energetically engaged in retrieving his fortune that he died in 1876.

Those survivors of the period of his activity who remember him describe Illinois' greatest cattle operator as a man of tall and commanding appearance. Even at the time of his death he was hale and youthful. He was of sanguine temperament, naturally impulsive, but quiet and unassuming in manner, sparing in speech and undoubtedly one of the great American captains of industry in his day, an outstanding figure in a trade that boasts many conspicuous men.

Evolution of the Land.

The operations of John T. Alexander and Jacob Strawn are of comparative recent date and yet during the brief period the middle West has gone through an evolution both agriculturally and pastorally. When Alexander began furnishing eastern markets with cattle in 1850 the trail was yet utilized across the Allegheny Mountains to Philadelphia, Baltimore and New York, and Chicago had not even aspired to the title of the world's greatest cattle market. Grass not corn was king all over the Mississippi Valley and the feedlot was practically unknown among fanners. Illinois was virgin prairie, the natural grasses being gradually displaced by bluegrass as increasing herds tramped out the indigenous growth. At that period Illinois was a cattle nursery of some pretensions, boasting of Short-horn herds the survivors of which are still meagerly in evidence, but the annual increase of these was insufficient and graziers made annual trips west for steers to fill their pastures. Gradually their buying embraced an increasing area until in the seventies they went as far as Abilene and Wichita, Kan., for stock. Subsequent to the war many Texas cattle were used, but by that time Chicago had diverted the movement to eastern markets, that trade reaching its maximum dimensions prior to 1859.

Prior to the corn feeding era the accepted practice was to drive stock cattle from west of the Mississippi River into Illinois in the fall, supplementing grass during the winter with hay whenever grazing was interrupted by snow. These cattle were 3 to 5 years of age when bought. Age was preferred as maturity insured rapid finishing qualities. Growing summer herds were topped out for beef as thousand-pound cattle were by no means the exception. The type of the cattle of those days is suggested by the illustration in the heading of this article.

Corn For Hogs Only.

Corn was then considered mainly of utility for hog feeding, little being given cattle. Prior to the railroad era steers were driven from central Illinois across Indiana and Ohio by slow stages, grazing as they journeyed until Ohio was reached. Feeding was done at regular stations established for the purposes across Ohio and Pennsylvania. Frequently the transit process would be interrupted to winter in Ohio. When the railroads came trailing ceased, although long after Chicago became a live stock market both cattle and hogs were driven from central Illinois to the town on Lake Michigan and when hogs could not be sold at Chicago the journey on foot was continued to Milwaukee.

But the cattle have left central Illinois and the grain elevator now distinguishes the landscape. The vast bluegrass pastures of the ante-bellum period have disappeared and corn tillage is the principal occupation of the agrarian population. Down in Morgan and Sangamon counties even recollections of the cattle trade as it existed in the days of John T. Alexander and Jacob Strawn are being rapidly effaced. A few cattle still come in from the West to be fattened on corn, but summer grazing is the exception and the interest of the occupant of the land centers not in cattle market quotations, but in the price of corn. The old Alexander mansion in Morgan county, the greatest house in the countryside half-a-century ago, remains in somewhat dilapidated condition and the crying outbuildings convey a mournful hint of vanished greatness. Here gathered during Alexander's opulence, the foremost men of the period. And living in seclusion at Jacksonville, patiently awaiting the last call, is a lady still beautiful in spite of accumulating years who presided as the mistress of this domain, when Abraham Lincoln, Stephen A. Douglas, Richard Yates and others whose illustrious names adorn Illinois history, were the guests of America's greatest cattleman. This survivor of former greatness is the Mary Dewes, daughter of Nimrod and Elizabeth Dewes Morgan county pioneers, who became the bride of John T. Alexander shortly after he moved from Ohio.

QUICK RELIEF FOR RHEUMATISM.

George W. Koon, Lawton, Mich., says: "Dr. Detchon's Relief for Rheumatism has given me a wonderful benefit for rheumatism. She could not lift hand or foot, had to be lifted for two months. She began the use of the remedy and improved rapidly. On Monday she could not move and on Wednesday she got up, dressed herself and walked out for breakfast." Sold by L. P. Alcott, druggist.—Adv.

GREATEST NEWS GATHERING FORCE OF THE WORLD

THE TRUTH ABOUT THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

The Co-operative Plan Upon Which the A. P. is Based is Largely Responsible for This Mammoth News Agency's Phenomenal Growth—Operates 47,000 Miles of Leased Wire and Employs 1,125 Men at an Annual Salary of Nearly $1,500,000.

Although even to the uninitiated the Associated Press means a gigantic organization for the gathering and distribution of news of the world, still it is quite doubtful if very many of the large number of men in the employ of that association, to say nothing of those not connected with it, know what a mammoth news agency it really is.

Operating 47,000 miles of leased wires which would reach nearly twice around the world, The Associated Press employs 1,125 men, 541 of whom are telegraph operators, and the payroll is only a few thousand dollars short of $1,500,000 annually. In addition to the leased wires, which comprise 79 circuits, it uses 82 pony circuits and during February of this year it transmitted over these circuits an average of 973,349 words every twenty-four hours. On an average the organization spends $2,000,000 for the collection and distribution of news.

Until only a few years ago the Associated Press bought its foreign news from European agencies, but wishing to be free to stamp the whole of its service with its own high conception of its duty to the public, it stationed a correspondent of its own in every political capital of the world and all of the commercial centers of first importance. The result is that now the Associated Press has its sentinels at every crossing of the world's highway, men of character and ability who command the confidence and enjoy the esteem of the potentates in every activity. One has only to reflect how important it is at this day, when the world has been reduced to a single community, that the essential activities of every section should be promptly and faithfully reported to every other section, to appreciate how tremendously valuable, as a factor promotive of human welfare, is the service which the Associated Press renders.

More than to any other one factor the Associated Press owes its phenomenal growth to its co-operative plan, in fact its very foundation is that one word, "co-operation." Nothing could be more erroneous than the popular notion that the Associated Press is an organization, the purpose of which is to buy and sell news for the purpose of profit. It does not buy and sell news and it makes no commodity of news. It gathers and distributes news, apportioning the expense among its members in the degree in which they are served and at a rate that is calculated to defray the actual cost of the service and no more. Of course this calculation cannot be made with perfect accuracy, expenditures must be governed by the contingencies that cannot be foreseen from one week's end to another even, and it sometimes results that the year's expenditures exceed the income. In such case it is sought to make the following year's income enough above the outlay to make up for the preceding year's deficit.

That the Associated Press is susceptible to political and other extraneous influences, is another notion that is almost as popular and quite as fallacious. It is a sufficient answer to that delusion to say that the Associated Press serves thousands of newspapers, among which there are representatives of every political division and every intellectual bias. There could be no better guaranty of the integrity of the Associated Press news than that single fact affords; for to serve that large and diverse clientele, absolute impartiality is in the highest degree indispensable to its success. If is subject to the lapses of all human institutions, of course, but in reality lapses more rarely than any other institution, for the reason that it has a more imperative need to be impartial and for the further reason that it employs and educates men to be more passive spectators to the things they report.

One of the greatest assets of this gigantic news gathering and distributing organization is its reputation for reliability. Now and then it is imposed upon and now and then a correspondent "falls down." But the error is always corrected, generally in time to prevent publication.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS.

Georgia Cain and Hal Ford are to appear in "Adele," a new musical comedy by Jean Briquet and Paul Herve, author and composer of "Alma."

Charles Frohman has fixed August 18 as the opening date for Richard Carle and Hattie Williams in "The Doll Girl" at the Globe theatre, New York.

A new playlet called "The Stolen Courtship," by Grace Griswold, is to be presented early in the coming season with Maude Leslie in the leading role.

Grace George is to open her season early in September, appearing in a new comedy on an American subject, written especially for her by Avery Hopwood.

Thomas Dixon, author of "The Clansman," has established an office for the production of his plays under his own direction. His new play, a dramatization from "The Leopard's Spots," is to have its first performance in Norfolk, Va., about the middle of September.

PLAY FESTIVAL DATE HAS BEEN ANNOUNCED

Will Be Given Aug. 19th on Illinois
College Athletic Field—Children
From All Wards To Take Part.

The Play Grounds Association has announced a Play Festival and the management of Director H. A. Ruyter of the first ward playgrounds to be held Tuesday evening August 19th at 7 o'clock on the athletic field of Illinois college. For this event Mr. Ruyter has for some time been training the children at the play grounds and also at the second, third and fourth ward school grounds and has arranged a program that will entertain and educate both old and young as to the possibilities of and good to be obtained from playgrounds.

The program will include playground ball, volley-ball, Norwegian and other folk dances, various games, tumbling and other athletic events. Mr. Ruyter has done great work with the boys and girls in the time he has been here and this function will allow the public to become acquainted with playground work of the most approved type as Mr. Ruyter during the school year conducts this work in the Chicago public schools. The Jeffries Concert Band will furnish music during the festival and the Athletic Field will be lighted and seated.

If the evening set should be rainy the festival will be held the following evening.

The play ground work in this city was inaugurated by S. W. Nichols. The association is in need of funds for more equipment and some indebtedness and also hopes if it can raise fun to other athletic events, this function will be for its benefit. The tickets will be twenty-five cents for adults and ten cents for children and the association hopes the public will respond liberally to this appeal in behalf of the children of Jacksonville.

IN WISCONSIN UNIVERSITY

Miss Georgia Lutkemeyer Resigns
Position at Public Library.

Miss Georgia Lutkemeyer, who has been head of the children's library at the public library, has resigned her position and expects to leave about the first of September for Madison, Wis., where she will enter the university, taking a library course which she expects to complete in eight months, with the degree of B. L. S. Miss Lutkemeyer has been very successful in her work in the Jacksonville library and her course at the university will fit her for a still larger field in the library world. It is probable that her place here will be taken by Miss Ruth McLaughlin, who has been studying in a New York library school.

MRS. MARY CLAPP MEETS
WIFE OF GEN. PICKETT.

Wives of Well Known General Meet at Kansas Chautauqua.

Mrs. Mary E. Clapp of 413 North Church street, wife of the late Gen. Dexter E. Clapp, had a most pleasant meeting recently in Yates City, Kans., with Mrs. Pickett, wife of George E. Pickett, who led Pickett's charge at Gettysburg. It will be remembered that Mrs. Pickett has been contributing some very interesting articles recently to the Journal. The meeting came about when Mrs. Pickett was delivering a lecture at the Yates City chautauqua, and the paper in giving an account of the events said: "Amid the stirring strains of 'Dixie,' with the big audience standing, while hundreds of handkerchiefs fluttered in the breeze in the chautauqua salute, Mr. A. J. Pickett introduced Mrs. Lasalle Corbell Pickett. From the back of the platform another woman came, and as the manager pronounced the names of Mrs. Mary Clapp and Mrs. Pickett, wife of Gen. George E. Pickett of Virginia, the two women bowed, one with the stately regal air of the north, and the other the courtly graciousness of the south.

On behalf of the W. R. C. Mrs. Clapp then presented to Mrs. Pickett a beautiful bouquet of flowers, tied with red, white and blue, and as the southern woman's hands went out to receive them her right hand clung to that of the northerner's, an emblem of a reunited north and south. Tears were in the eyes of both and as Mrs. Pickett turned to the audience, she raised the colors and pressed them to her lips." In speaking of the address it says: "So eloquently does she lead you on that when the charge is made and the end comes, the audience almost weeps as she tells of the meeting between Lee and Pickett, and hears Pickett's words as his eyes tore over the bloody field, where more than three thousand of his men lie. 'I'm ashamed to be alive with my boys lying dead all round me.'"

GAVE SURPRISE PARTY.
A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Butler Friday night in honor of Mrs. Butler's 50th birthday. There were about seventy-five neighbors and friends present and they came with goodly supplies of excellent eatables and the surprise they gave was a complete one. Miss Iva Summers added to the pleasure of the occasion with some musical selections and Mrs. Butler received a number of useful and valuable gifts. Those present to enjoy the event were Mrs. C. H. Summers and daughter Iva from Winchester; Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Bentley from Jacksonville; Mrs. John Leach, Mr. and Mrs. George Barnhart, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Winter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Homer to Grinnett and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Omeara, Mr. and Mrs. Porter Bell and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thies and family.

JUDGE McDONALD DIES
AT HOME IN SEATTLE

Former Jacksonville Resident Expires Suddenly From Heart Disease—Left for West in 1876 and Had Been Prominent There.

Judge F. A. McDonald, for many years a resident of this city, died recently in Seattle from heart disease. He was a son of the late Alexander McDonald and was born in Jacksonville sixty-three years ago. The Seattle Sun gives the following account of Judge McDonald's sudden death:

"Judge F. A. McDonald, 5722 Greenlake boulevard, died suddenly of heart failure at his home at 8:15 o'clock this morning at the age of 65. His death was entirely unexpected, as he was in apparently the best of health.

"At 6 o'clock this morning he complained a little of indigestion, but thought nothing of it, and a little later went into the yard to pick some cherries. About 8 o'clock, after coming back into the house, he complained of slight indigestion. A few minutes after 8 he went into the bath room and his wife heard him fall. She found him where he had fallen with a cut in his head, which had struck against something as he fell.

Rheumatism of the Heart.
"Doctors who attended him said that the blow on the head was not sufficient to cause his death, and gave the cause as rheumatism of the heart.

"Judge McDonald was born Dec. 9, 1850, at Jacksonville, Ill. In 1876 he went to California, where he lived until 1889. In that year he went to Oregon and moved to Washington ten years later. For many years he was prominent in Democratic politics. He was a member of the legislature from King county in 1899, and a civil service commissioner of Seattle under Mayors Ballinger, Moore and Miller. At the time of his death he was president of the school board.

Leading Candidate for Postmaster.
"Mr. McDonald for a considerable time preceding the nomination of Edgar Battle for the position of postmaster at Seattle, was considered the leading candidate and in case of the United States senate to confirm the Battle nomination it confidently had been predicted by McDonald's friends that he would be named. Mr. McDonald had the endorsement of the King county central committee and many other influential party bodies.

"In Oregon he was a county judge and a register of the land office at The Dalles. From 1892 to 1897 he was collector of customs for the port of Seattle, and since then has been in the real estate business.

"He had been married for 29 years and his wife's maiden name was Mary P. Baldwin. He is survived by his widow, three sons and a daughter. The sons are Donald A., Robert S. and Ralph C., and the surviving daughter is Mrs. W. E. Sander of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

"Judge McDonald maintained an office at 405 Pioneer building and did some real estate business, but had practically retired from active business pursuits. No arrangements have yet been made, but in accordance with his wish his body will probably be cremated. Arrangements will be made with the Cremation Society of Washington."

Judge McDonald was a son of Alexander and Mary L. Israel McDonald, and as stated above was born in Jacksonville. He graduated from Illinois college in 1871 and was a member of the old First Presbyterian church. Edward L. and Francis I. McDonald were brothers of the deceased and the old family home was at the southwest corner of State and Prairie streets. Judge McDonald's mother, before her marriage, was Miss Israel and she thus belonged to one of the families which settled very early in Morgan county, coming here about 1830.

NOT WELL ENOUGH TO WORK.
In these words is hidden the tragedy of many a wage earning woman who supports herself and is often helping to support a family, on meagre wages. Whether in office, factory, shop, store or kitchen, woman should remember that there is one tried and true remedy for the ills to which all women are prone, and that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It creates the vitality that makes work easy.—Adv.

MORTUARY

Morgan.
Thomas T. Morgan of Charleston died Friday night at 5 o'clock at the Jacksonville State hospital. He was 81 years of age. The remains were taken to O'Donnell's undertaking parlors and from there sent to his former home.

Plank.
Lewis H. Plank of Concord died Saturday morning at 10 o'clock after four weeks' illness. He was born May 18, 1873, in Brown county. He married Mary Ethylene Whorton. To this union four children were born, Lowell, who died March, 1908; Loyce Elsworth, Vervel Ella and Edna Lea. He united with the Concord Christian church in October, 1897, and at the time of his death held the offices of deacon and trustee in the church and was also a member of the school board of his district.

Besides his wife and children he is survived by one brother, Elmer F. of Versailles, one sister, Mrs. Luella Bowman of Bearlston; one step-sister, Mrs. William Cooper of Versailles, and an aged step-father of Cooperstown; also one brother-in-law, J. E. Whorton, who lived with him. He had resided in Concord for over 22 years.

The funeral will be from the house at 10 a. m. Monday in charge of Rev. E. P. Gish, a former pastor, assisted by Elder W. D. Martin.

Heaton.
John Heaton, one of the oldest residents of Jacksonville, died Saturday evening at 5 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Edna A. Cooley, 236 East Washington street, aged 90 years. He had not been well for several weeks and death was due to diseases incident to old age.

He was born in Green county, Pa., June 6, 1823, being the son of John and Mary Heaton. He was married to Miss Demarias Wyder Aug. 22, 1850, who passed away a number of years ago. For over 80 years Mr. Heaton had resided in this community. He is survived by the following children: Mrs. Edna A. Cooley of this city; Charles Heaton of Casselton, Mo.; Roy Heaton of Chenoweth, N. D., and Virgil of Hotchkiss, Colo.

Brief funeral services will be conducted Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the family residence and at 6 o'clock the remains will be taken via rail to Greenfield, where burial will be made.

Carman.
Nelson Carman, a well known resident of Manchester, died Friday night at 8:20 o'clock, following several weeks' illness of kidney troubles. He made his home with his daughter, Mrs. George Goacher.

Mr. Carman was born in Ross county, Ohio, near Columbus, June 27, 1842, and came to Illinois in 1862, settling in Morgan county. He remained here one year, then moved to Indiana, and later returned to Ohio. But he became dissatisfied shortly afterward and returned to Manchester. For several years he followed the occupation of a farmer and six years ago moved to Manchester. He was converted in a Methodist revival, but never joined any church.

He was married on Nov. 20, 1865, to Miss Mary J. Antrobus, who was born in Washington county, Illinois. She died Nov. 20, 1897. The following children survive: Edgar and Ernest N. of Greene county; Ora A. of Ellis Grove, Randolph county; Frank Carman of Manchester and Mrs. George Goacher also of Manchester. He leaves two brothers, William of Greene county and Raymond of St. Louis. One sister, Sarah, preceded him in death.

The funeral services will be held from the Baptist church in Manchester Monday afternoon at 2:30 in charge of Rev. Henry Dixon of Rock Bridge.

Renwick.
The funeral services in memory of Mrs. Foster R. Renwick, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Barr were held at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon from the Barr home, 1209 West State street. The services were beautiful in their simplicity. Dr. F. S. Hayden read several passages from the scriptures which give promise of the life which is beyond the tomb and then offered a simple prayer. The casket was borne to Diamond Grove cemetery and interred in a grave made beautiful with flowers. Dr. Hayden there said the committal service. The bearers were Messrs. C. A. Renwick, Grand Rapids; J. E. Fisher, Minneapolis; W. B. Renwick, Cornua, Mich.; J. H. Russell, Edward and Ralph Dunlap of Jacksonville. The flowers were cared for by Mrs. G. L. Merrill, Misses Anna Duer, Helen Reaugh, Mabel Reid and Edna Cox.

Those who attended the funeral services were Foster R. Renwick, Minneapolis; Mrs. C. A. Renwick and son, C. A. Renwick, of Grand Rapids; Miss Julia Renwick, Grand Rapids; J. E. Fisher, Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Renwick, of Cornua, Mich.; E. A. Renwick, Chicago; Miss Anna Duer, Divernon; Mrs. N. R. Jerald, Springfield.

MATRIMONIAL

French-Geiss.
The marriage of James Floyd French of Camp Point and Miss Verma Marie Geiss of Meredosia was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Centenary M. E. church parsonage. Rev. G. W. Flagg officiating. The groom is the son of J. W. French and the bride is the daughter of Albert Geiss. The young people came to the city with Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wegeholf of Meredosia, who made the trip in their automobile. They will reside in Camp Point, where the groom is engaged in the plumbing business.

Crews-Jobson.
Harry L. Crews and Miss Loyce May Dobson were married Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock by Rev. G. W. Flagg, pastor of Centenary M. E. church. The ceremony took place at the parsonage and was witnessed by Chris Herburg and Miss May McCaffrey. Mr. Crews is a cigarmaker by trade and is employed by Cassell Brothers. The bride is the daughter of James F. Dobson, the family having formerly resided in Murrayville. She has been employed at the Ward Book bindery. The young people have a host of friends who will wish them success in their wedded life. They will reside at 122 East Morton avenue.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

At a sewing given by Miss Elizabeth Struck at her home recently, announcement was made of the engagement of her sister, Miss Lelia Struck to Prof. A. F. Cook of Owen, Wis., the marriage to take place in the near future. The guest list was limited to intimate friends of the guest of honor and the announcement was made by means of two little hearts concealed in a rose, containing the initials of the bride and groom-to-be, each guest being presented a rose. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Struck of 618 North Prairie street and graduated this year from the Jacksonville High school. She is a member of the Alpha Gamma Theta literary society. Prof. Cook for two years, has been teacher of English in the high school here and recently was offered and accepted the position of superintendent of the high school at Grand Meadow, Minn.

Miss Marie Bussey entertained at her home five miles south of Jacksonville Friday evening, in honor of her cousins, Misses Leta and Ruby Watts of Ashland, and Miss Helen Frost of Winchester. The evening was spent in playing croquet and with music. Miss Ethel Kloethe of Piper City gave several piano selections, which were greatly enjoyed. Delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Shumaker was assisted by Mrs. Warren Watts.

Miss Pearl Bridgman entertained the members of her Sunday school class of Ebenezer church recently at a sewing. There were about ten young ladies present and the time was pleasantly passed with sewing, music and social conversation. The next regular monthly meeting of the class is to be held at the home of Mrs. Samuel Challiner who has kindly invited the members to be her guests at that time.

MCCRACKEN LIVERY BARN

BURNS AT ROODHOUSE

Two Horses Belonging to Jack Knapp of Pearl, Ill., Meet Death—Origin of Flames Unknown.

Roodhouse was visited by a fierce fire Friday morning about 4 o'clock when S. P. McCracken's livery barn was completely destroyed by fire. Two horses belonging to Jack Knapp of Pearl, Ill., were burned, the management succeeding in getting the other twenty-two horses out. There was a large quantity of hay destroyed as well as grain and considerable harness. When the flames were discovered by William Riley, who stays at the barn at night, the roof was on fire, which showed that the flames originated there. It is thought the fire started from a defective electric wire. Aside from the livery barn the blacksmith shop in the Agee building adjoining, run by Nino Adams, was also completely destroyed. Mr. McCracken estimates his loss at between $3,500 and $4,000, with $1,200 insurance on the building and $800 on the rolling stock.

M. E. CHURCHES HOLD

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE.

Rev. Mr. Houck Entertains Officers From Point and Ebenezer Churches—Lynnville and Mt. Zion Conference Meets at Y. M. C. A.

The quarterly conferences were held yesterday of Point and Ebenezer churches, over which Rev. E. B. Houck has charge, and Lynnville and Mt. Zion, under the pastorate of the Rev. Roscoe Linder. The members of the conference of Point and Ebenezer churches were entertained at luncheon Saturday at 1 o'clock by Rev. Mr. Houck at his residence on Webster avenue. After the luncheon, reports of the stewards, trustees, Sunday school superintendents and Epworth league officers were heard and the regular quarterly reorganization was perfected. The conference of the churches of Lynnville and Mt. Zion was held at the Jacksonville Y. M. C. A. at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The same kind of business was transacted and the resignation of Rev. Mr. Linder was received but no successor fixed upon. Both meetings were presided over by the Rev. F. A. McCarty, although the meeting in the Y. M. C. A. was opened by the Rev. G. W. Flagg.

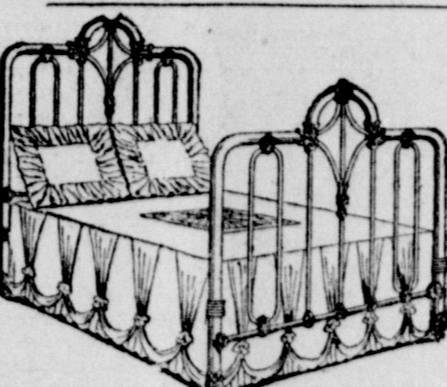

Rev. Mr. Linder is laying down his charge to engage in high school work.
